The Ballad of Les Darcy Peter FitzSimons, 2010-06-01 An Australian hero torn between family and country Put Les Darcy in a uniform and the men of Australia will march to hell behind him that was the message trained on Australia's great Blacksmith Boxer as debate about conscription raged in the middle of World War I the problem was that Les Darcy didn't want to march at the fore of such a procession nor to such a destination He wanted to continue what he had been doing to extraordinary acclaim before the war began taking on the best boxers the world could throw at him and lifting his entire family out of poverty as he did so torn between the duty he felt he owed his family and the duty many felt he owed his country Les made his choice and faced the consequences And so unfolds a ballad of love war betrayal mystery patriotism and heroism a ballad of a champion whose story still has the power to move the stoniest heart Every Assistance & Protection Jane Doulman, David Lee, 2008 Every Assistance and Protection is the first book presenting an in depth history of the Australian passport In charting the development of the passport from its early beginnings to its present form the book traverses changes in government policy and social history from the early 19th century to the modern era It shows how the Australian passport evolved from a signifier of British nationality into a badge of membership of one of the most multicultural countries in the world The book explores the landmark events in this history the great 19th century diasporas resulting from relaxation of official controls on the movement of people the early passport regime regulating the movement of ticket of leave convicts the establishment of the centralised passport system during World War I the enactment of the first passport legislation for the Commonwealth The Passports Act 1920 and the reaction of some Australians who felt the new law infringed the liberties of the British subject changes to the laws in 1938 such that possession of a passport was no longer mandatory for an Australian to travel though still a practical necessity the use of the government's discretionary power to cancel or withhold passports to inhibit the movement of individual communists the establishment of Australian citizenship in 1948 the basis for possession of an Australian passport the removal of the word British from the cover in 1967 the effects of globalisation and heightened security in the late 20th and early 21st century It also touches on the lives of individuals boxer Les Darcy journalist Wilfred Burchett and General Sir Thomas Blamey are among the many Australians featuring in these pages The book is based on an exhaustive examination of hitherto unexamined primary sources of many government departments including the Departments of External Affairs the Prime Minister's the Attorney General's Defence Home and Territories Immigration and Foreign Affairs Sponsored by Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade Ballad of Les Darcy P. Fitzsimons, 2003 Tobruk Peter FitzSimons, 2010-01-01 The number 1 non fiction bestseller More than 100 000 copies sold What we have we hold MOTT O OF AUSTRALIA'S 2 17th BATTALION In the tradition of his bestselling Kokoda Peter FitzSimons Australia's most beloved popular historian focuses on one of the seminal moments in Australian history the Battle of Tobruk in 1941 in which more than 15 000 Australian troops backed by British artillery fought in excruciating desert heat through eight long months against Adolf Hitler's formidable Afrika Korps. During the dark heart of World War II when Hitler turned his attention to conquering North Africa, a distracted and far-flung Allied force could not give its all to the defence of Libya. So the job was left to the roughest, toughest bunch that could be mustered: the Australian Imperial Force. The AIF's defence of the harbour city of Tobruk against the Afrika Korps armoured division is not only the stuff of Australian legend, it is one of the great battles of all time. As against the might of General Rommel and his Panzers, the Australians relied on one factor in particular to give them the necessary strength against the enemy: mateship. Drawing on extensive source material including diaries and letters many never published before, this extraordinary book, written in Peter FitzSimons' highly readable style, is the definitive account of this remarkable chapter in Australia's history. Foreword by Manfred Rommel. Kokoda Peter FitzSimons, 2010-12-16. An engrossing narrative beautifully controlled by a master storyteller. Michael McKernan, Sydney Morning Herald. The bestselling, acclaimed, authoritative account of one of the most famous battles in Australian military history, now established as a classic. For Australians, Kokoda is the iconic battle of World War II, yet few people know just what happened and just what our troops achieved. In his bestselling book, Peter FitzSimons tells the Kokoda story in his distinctive gripping style. Conditions on the track were hellish, rain was constant, the terrain close to inhospitable, food and ammunition supplies were practically non-existent, and the men constantly battled malaria and dysentery, as well as the Japanese. Kokoda was a defining battle for Australia: a small force of young, ill-equipped Australians engaged a highly experienced and hitherto unstoppable Japanese force on a narrow, precarious jungle track and defeated them. Hustling Hitler Walter Shapiro, 2016-06-14. From acclaimed journalist Walter Shapiro, the true life story of how his great uncle, a Jewish vaudeville impresario and exuberant con man, managed to cheat Hitler's agents in the run-up to WWII. All his life, journalist Walter Shapiro assumed that the outlandish stories about his great uncle, Freeman, were exaggerated family lore, some cockamamie Jewish revenge fantasies dreamt up to entertain the kids and venerate their larger-than-life relative. Only when he started researching Freeman Bernstein's life did he realize that his family was actually holding back: the man had enough stories, vocations, and IOUs to fill a dozen lifetimes. Freeman was many people: a vaudeville manager, boxing promoter, stock swindler, card shark, and self-proclaimed Jade King of China. But his greatest title, perhaps the only man who can claim such infamy, was as The Man Who Hustled Hitler. A cross between The Night They Raided Minsky's and Guys and Dolls, Freeman Bernstein's life was itself an old New York sideshow extravaganza, one that Shapiro expertly stages in Hustling Hitler. From a ragtag childhood in Troy, New York, Shapiro follows his great uncle's ever-crooked trajectory through show business, from his early schemes on the burlesque circuit to marrying his star performer, May Ward, and producing silent films released only in Philadelphia. Of course, all of Freeman's cons and schemes were simply a prelude to February 18, 1937, the day he was arrested by the LAPD outside of Mae West's apartment in Hollywood. The charge: Grand larceny for cheating Adolf Hitler and the Nazi government. In the capstone of his slippery career, Freeman had promised to ship thirty-five tons of embargoed

Canadian nickel to the Führer when the cargo arrived the Germans found only huge useless quantities of scrap metal and tin. It was a blow to their economy and war preparations and Hitler did not take the bait and switch lightly. Told with cinematic verve and hilarious perspective, Hustling Hitler is Shapiro's incredible investigation into the man behind the myth. By reconstructing his great uncle's remarkable career, Shapiro has transformed Freeman Bernstein from a barely there footnote in history to the larger than life eternal hustler who forever changed it. Seriously...You Have to Laugh Peter FitzSimons, 2016-11-23 Putting his unique spin on our sporting life, Peter FitzSimons celebrates the tall tales and true, the outrageous yarns and the knockabout humour from the footy fields, cricket grounds, dressing rooms, bars and commentary boxes of Australia. From the clever sledges behind the bales and the goalposts to the quick wit of lounge room commentators and the ever so slightly exaggerated tales of holes in one and other great sporting feats, comes this collection of wicked tales, killer quotes and puffed up stories of sporting prowess that it will make you chuckle, roll your eyes and say, Seriously, you have to laugh. Gotta Love This Country! Peter FitzSimons, 2015-11-18 A celebration of chest puffing, goodness and kindness from around the country, written in inimitable Peter FitzSimons's style. You gotta love this country when an AFL legend takes his mum instead of his girlfriend to the Brownlow, when an Australian cricket captain joins a bunch of fourteen year olds for a bit of street cricket, when a bloke wins the Australian Marbles Championship after being reunited with the tom bowlers his brother threw away forty years ago, and when the dry cleaner down the road is called Drop Your Pants. Peter FitzSimons celebrates the good, the generous, the kind and the downright strange in this hilarious and heart warming collection of stories from daily life and grassroots sporting fields around the country. It's enough for you to puff out your chest and say, Gotta Love This Country. Sold by the Millions Louise Lightfoot, Amit Sarwal, 2011-12-08 Australian genre fiction writers have successfully exploited the Australian landscape and peoples and as a result their books are today sold by the millions across boundaries. Charles Kingsford Smith and Those Magnificent Men Peter FitzSimons, 2010-08-10 The must read story of the boy from Brisbane who became a wartime hero and aviation trailblazer. In an action packed life, the indomitable Smithy went from fighting as a soldier amid the carnage of Gallipoli and the Western Front to taking to the skies against the likes of the Red Baron for which he won the Military Cross for gallantry, before becoming the greatest peacetime aviator of his generation. Along with Charles Ulm, he was the first to conquer the Pacific by air, the first to fly across the Tasman Sea, the fastest to fly from England to Australia and the first pilot to circumnavigate the globe by crossing the equator With typical flair FitzSimons also tells the story of several breakthroughs some made in Australia which laid the foundation for the Wright brothers success in 1903 the first flight across the Channel in 1908 Germany s Red Baron terrorising the Allies in 1917 18 before being shot down by an Australian Ross and Keith Smith s first flight from England to Australia in 1919 the formation of Qantas in 1921 Lindbergh s stunning vault between America and Europe in 1927 the Great Centenary Air Race the loss of the Southern Cloud the saga of Bert Hinkler and much much more Undoubtedly the best aviation book I have ever read Dick Smith
