Architecture and Identity Chris Abel, Norman Foster, 2012-10-02 Instead of tuning the consumer to the machine we can now tune the machine to the consumer This edited collection of essays now in its second edition brings together the author's key writings on the cultural technological and theoretical developments reshaping Modern architecture into a responsive and diverse movement for the twenty first century Chris Abel approaches his subject from a wide range of knowledge including cybernetics philosophy new human science and development planning as well as his experience as a teacher and critic on four continents The result is a unique global perspective on the changing nature of Modern architecture at the turn of the millennium Including two new chapters this revised and expanded second edition offers radical insights into such topics as the impact of information technology on customized architecture production the relations between tradition and innovation prospects for a global eco culture and the local and global forces shaping the architecture and cities of Asia Chris Abel is an architectural writer and educator based in Malta He has taught at major universities in the UK North and South America Southeast Asia and the Middle East and is a contributor to numerous international journals and other publications He currently holds visiting appointments at the University of Malta and the University of the Philippines

Architecture, Technology and Process Chris Abel, 2007-03-30 This new selection of essays follows Chris Abel's previous best selling collection Architecture and Identity Drawing upon a wide range of knowledge and disciplines the author argues that underlying technological changes in the process of architectural production are fundamental changes in the way we think about machines and the world we live in Key topics include new patterns of urbanism in the fast growing cities of asia pacific metaphorical extensions of mind and body in cyberspace the divergent European and North American values shaping Sir Norman Foster s and Frank Gehry s work and the collaborative work methods and technologies creating the adaptable design practices of today

Analogical Thinking in Architecture Jean-Pierre Chupin,2023-07-27 This book provides an in depth exploration of the rich and persistent use of analogical thinking in the built environment Since the turn of the 21st century design thinking has permeated many fields outside of the design disciplines It is expected to succeed whenever disciplinary boundaries need to be transcended in order to think outside the box This book argues that these qualities have long been supported by analogical thinking an agile way of reasoning in which think the unknown through the familiar The book is organized into four case studies the first reviews analogical models that have been at the heart of design thinking representations from the 1960s to the present day the second investigates the staying power of biological analogies the third explores the paradoxical imaginary of analogous cities as a means of integrating contemporary architecture with heritage contexts while the fourth unpacks the critical and theoretical potential of linguistic metaphors and visual comparisons in architectural discourse Comparing views on the role of analogies and metaphors by prominent voices in architecture and related disciplines from the 17th century to the present the book shows how the analogical world of the project is revealed as a wide open field of creative and cognitive interactions These visual and textual operations are explained through 36 analogical plates which can be read as an inter text demonstrating how analogy has the power to reconcile design and theories

Urban Architecture and Local Spaces in Pakistan Suneela Ahmed,2022-10-27 This book is set in Karachi Pakistan and investigates the possibility of achieving localness through identifying urban process and their impact on built form addressing how locals associate with the urban spaces and how they value it Thus the investigation using the local terminology maqamiyat goes beyond the physicality of space and develops a framework that helps to understand the social ethnic economic ecological and other the non physical aspects of space which are of value to the locals The aim is to investigate the possibility of achieving localness through identifying urban design elements that can be incorporated into the process of designing new built forms that acknowledges what is valued by the locals instead of superimposing imported designs negating the contextual realities both physical and social For this purpose the book includes three case studies from Karachi The book questions the aspiration of many cities in the South Asian context to imitate the built forms of Western cities increasingly Singapore and Shanghai which are viewed as modern and represents future The book will make a theoretical contribution to the existing literature on postcolonial urbanism and explore space from a local vantage point for understanding how to look inwards for aspiration

Courtyard Housing Brian Edwards,2006 This book demonstrates through discussions on sustainability and regional identity and via a series of case studies that the courtyard housing form has a future as well as a past

Frontiers of Creative Industries Candace Jones,Massimo Maoret,2018-04-03 Creative industries are a growing and globally important area for both economic vitality and cultural expression of industrialized nations This volume examines their institutional categorical and structural dynamics to provide an overview of new trends and emerging issues in scholarship on this topic Official Gazette Philippines, 2007
