EBOOK: Crafting and Executing Strategy: South African Edition Johan Hough,A. Strickland,2010-12-16 Based on the reputable US text the 2nd Southern African Edition of Crafting Executing Strategy covers what every senior level or entry level MBA student in Southern Africa needs to know about crafting executing and aligning business strategies through presentation of core concepts and analytical techniques A separate case and readings sections build on the main text by demonstrating the theory in practice The core concepts are explained in language that Southern African students can grasp and provide relevant examples as used by small medium and large SA companies

EBOOK: Realities of Human Resource Management Keith Sisson,John Storey,2000-05-16 This new book builds on the success of Managing Human Resources and Industrial Relations Storey and Sisson 1993 It provides a succinct affordable up to date analysis of themes and topics relevant to the management of human resources today It covers issues of critical contemporary importance such as restructuring continuous improvement involvement and participation pay and working time training and development recruitment and selection It also looks at the implications of contextual changes such as the signing of the social chapter of the EU Maastricht Treaty and movement towards European Economic and Monetary Union Three features in particular distinguish this volume from the many others in the field Firstly it deals with both the individual and the collective aspects of managing the employment relationship Most books cover either one or the other but not both Secondly in analysing the latest thinking in both areas this book takes account of the large body of empirical research that is now available and identifies what it all means for the practitioner Thirdly the distinctive style in which this book is written gives it an immediacy not common in management texts This book will be equally valuable to practising managers not only specialist human resource managers and students of business and management who are studying a course or module in human resource management Helpfully for the latter audience the book is arranged so that each chapter could appropriately constitute the required reading for a week by week programme extending over ten weeks

EBOOK: Managing Successful Universities Michael Shattock, 2010-09-16 There is no truer text to the topic than Managing Successful Universities The second edition is a full revision in which globalisation managing financial disjuncture and the enhancement of research performance all loom larger than before Like its predecessor this book will be used throughout the English speaking world and beyond Professor Simon Marginson Centre for the Study of Higher Education University of Melbourne This is the manual par excellence for modern university leadership and management In my role as a business school dean it is by far the most useful single book I have ever read and continue to read Professor Mark Taylor Dean Warwick Business School University of Warwick When I began my career in university management there was just one book on managing UK universities Now there must be twenty or thirty but none is as comprehensive authoritative readable and important as Shattock's Managing Successful Universities Read this valuable book and learn much from it David Palfreyman Director of OXCHEPS and Bursar New College University of Oxford This bestselling book defines good management in a university context and how it can contribute to university success Extensively updated to reflect political financial and social developments since the first edition it includes a new chapter on the management of teaching and research and gives in depth coverage to managing retrenchment and the importance of human resource management Drawing on the literature of management in the private sector as well as from higher education and on the experience of the author it emphasizes The holistic characteristics of university management The need to be outward looking and entrepreneurial in management style and The ways successful universities utilize the market to reinforce academic excellence

The Strategy-focused Organization Robert S. Kaplan, David P. Norton, 2001 In today's business environment strategy has never been more important Yet research shows that most companies fail to execute strategy successfully Behind this abysmal track record lies an undeniable fact many companies continue to use management processes top down financially driven and tactical that were designed to run yesterday's organizations Now the creators of the revolutionary performance management tool called the Balanced Scorecard introduce a new approach that makes strategy a continuous process owned not just by top management but by everyone In The Strategy Focused Organization Robert Kaplan and David Norton share the results of ten years of learning and research into more than 200 companies that have implemented the Balanced Scorecard Drawing from more than twenty in depth case studies including Mobil CIGNA Nova Scotia Power and AT T Canada Kaplan and Norton illustrate how Balanced Scorecard adopters have taken their groundbreaking tool to the next level These organizations have used the scorecard to create an entirely new performance management framework that puts strategy at the center of key management processes and systems Kaplan and Norton articulate the five key principles required for building Strategy Focused Organizations 1 translate the strategy to operational terms 2 align the organization to the strategy 3 make strategy everyone s everyday job 4 make strategy a continual process and 5 mobilize change through strong effective leadership The authors provide a detailed account of how a range of organizations in the private public and nonprofit sectors have deployed these principles to achieve breakthrough sustainable performance improvements Presenting a practical proven framework steeped in rich case study experience The Strategy Focused Organization helps solve a universal management problem not just how to formulate strategy but how to make it work Building on one of the most revolutionary business ideas of our time this important book shows how today s leaders can shape their own companies to meet the challenges and reap the rewards of a new competitive era Robert S Kaplan is the Marvin Bower Professor of Leadership Development at Harvard Business School David P Norton is President of Balanced Scorecard Collaborative Inc
