Pasto Rodrigo Praino Laura E Ruberto Joseph Sciorra Donald Tricarico and Elizabeth Zaroni Bourdieu: The Next Generation Jenny Thatcher, Nicola Ingram, Ciaran Burke, Jessie Abrahams, 2015-12-22 This book will give unique insight into how a new generation of Bourdieusian researchers apply Bourdieu to contemporary issues It will provide a discussion of the working mechanisms of thinking through and or with Bourdieu when analysing data In each chapter individual authors discuss and reflect upon their own research and the ways in which they put Bourdieu to work The aim of this book is not to just to provide examples of the development of Bourdieusian research but for each author to reflect on the ways in which they came across Bourdieu s work why it speaks to them including a reflexive consideration of their own background and the way in which it is thus useful in their thinking Many of the authors were introduced to Bourdieu s works after his death The research problems which the individual authors tackle are contextualised in a different time and space to the one Bourdieu occupied when he was developing his conceptual framework This book will demonstrate how his concepts can be applied as thinking tools to understand contemporary social reality Throughout Bourdieu s career he argued that sociologists need to create an epistemological break to abandon our common sense or as much as we can and to formulate findings from our results In essence we are putting Bourdieu to work to provide a structural constructivist approach to social reality anchored through empirical reflexivity Commonplace Diversity: Social Relations in a Super-Diverse Context Susanne Wessendorf, 2014-11-03 Drawing on in depth ethnographic fieldwork Wessendorf explores life in a super diverse urban neighbourhood The book presents a vivid account of the daily doings and social relations among the residents and how they pragmatically negotiate difference in their everyday lives Youth Cultures in China Jeroen de Kloet, Anthony Y.
