

Bali And Beyond Bali And Beyond

Edgar J. Guedez

Bali And Beyond Bali And Beyond:

Bali and Beyond Shinji Yamashita, 2003 Based on field research carried out over two decades the author surveys the development of the anthropology of tourism and its significance using case studies drawn from Indonesia New Guinea and Japan He argues that tourism once seen as rather peripheral by anthropologists has to be treated as a phenomenon of major importance both because the size of the flows of people and capital involved and because it is one of the major sites in which the meeting and hybridization of culture takes place Tourism he suggests leads not to the destruction of local cultures as many critics have implied but rather to the emergence of new cultural forms The central part of the book presents a detailed case study of the island of Bali in Indonesia It traces the development of tourism there during the colonial period and the ways in which Balinese traditional culture was developed first by western artists and scholars in the colonial period and more recently by Balinese government officials in the guise of cultural tourism The general theme of the presentation of tradition is also discussed in relation to Toraja funerals in the Indonesian province of Sulawesi western visitors to the Sepik River in Papua New Guinea and the small city of Tono in northern Japan which has become a center for the study of folk lore

Beyond Bali Ana Dragojlovic, 2025-10-01 This ethnography explores how Balinese citizens produce postcolonial intimacy a complex interaction of claims to proximity and mutuality between themselves and the Dutch under colonialism that continues today Such claims Ana Dragojlovic explains are crucial for the diasporic reconfiguration of kebalian or Balinese ness a concept that encompasses the personal social and cultural complexities involved in Balinese identity in Dutch postcolonial society This identity enables Balinese migrants to see themselves as carriers of unique cultural traditions both promoted by and in disagreement with Dutch cultural values

Beyond the Realm of the Senses Raechelle Rubinstein, 2022-07-04 This book is the first comprehensive study of the practice of kekawin composition in Bali Based on field research and a diverse range of palm leaf texts it explores Balinese perceptions of kekawin composition and demonstrates the nexus between religion and the writing of these poems Like kekawin from ancient Java Balinese kekawin have been conceived as a mystical means of unification with divinity as temples of language In the first part of the book Bali is shown to be a society of religious literacy and alphabet magic and the religious beliefs that underpin literary activity are examined The second part explores

Balinese conceptions of the practice of kekawin composition as literary yoga Both the priestly identity of poets and the act of composing as a religious ritual are considered The final section investigates the craft of composition through texts that concern prosody poetics and orthography the Canda the Bhasaprana and the Swarawyanjana Indonesia Beyond Suharto Donald K.
