Barbarian Conversion From Paganism To Ch:

The Barbarian Conversion Richard A. Fletcher, 1999 An investigation of the process by which large parts of Europe accepted the Christian faith between the fourth and the fourteenth centuries and of some of the cultural consequences that flowed therefrom In a work of splendid scholarship that reflects both a firm mastery of difficult sources and a keen intuition one of Britain's foremost medievalists tells the story of the Christianization of Europe It is a very large story for conversion encompassed much more than religious belief With it came enormous cultural change Latin literacy and books Roman notions of law and property and the concept of town life as well as new tastes in food drink and dress Whether from faith or by force from self interest or by revelation conversion had an immense impact that is with us even today Contesting Christendom James L. Halverson, 2008 The pervasiveness of the Christian religion has long been treated as one of the key features of medieval society Indeed Europe in the Middle Ages is often described simply as a Christian culture Yet what do we mean when we say that medieval Europe was a Christian society and what did it mean to be a Christian in the Middle Ages These questions are fundamental to any understanding of the Middle Ages yet the variety of theoretical approaches and conclusions represented in this carefully selected and provocative collection of key works in the field highlights the complexity of the answers Introducing students to medieval Christianity James L Halverson presents a rich array of readings that offers a variety of ways to study the history of religion within a chronological setting His opening chapter and introductions to each section and selection frame the essays and provide a strong conceptual framework to build upon Making it clear that scholars have approached religion from many perspectives and used many different methodologies this collection presents some of the best scholarship of religion as culture and practice emphasizing the ongoing attempt to understand the social and cultural aspects of medieval Christianity Contributions by Rudolf Bell Constance Brittain Bouchard Peter Brown Marcus Bull Caroline Walker Bynum Mark R Cohen Georges Duby Eamon Duffy Joan Ferrante Richard Fletcher Katherine L French Thomas A Fudge Herbert Grundmann James L Halverson Karen Louise Jolly Lester Little Rob Means Bernd Moeller Andrew P Roach Jane Tibbets Schulenburg Keith Thomas and Ian Wood God's Crucible: Islam and the Making of Europe, 570-1215 David Levering Lewis, 2009-01-12 From the two time Pulitzer Prize winning author God's Crucible brings to life a furiously complex age New York Times Book Review Resonating as profoundly today as when it was first published to widespread critical acclaim a decade ago God's Crucible is a bold portrait of Islamic Spain and the birth of modern Europe from one of our greatest historians David Levering Lewis's narrative filled with accounts of some of the most epic battles in world history reveals how cosmopolitan Muslim al Andalus flourished a beacon of cooperation and tolerance while proto Europe floundered in opposition to Islam making virtues out of hereditary aristocracy religious intolerance perpetual war and slavery This masterful history begins with the fall of the Persian and Roman empires followed by the rise of the prophet Muhammad and five centuries of engagement between the Muslim imperium and an emerging Europe

Essential and urgent God's Crucible underscores the importance of these early world altering events whose influence remains as current as today's headlines Recultivating the Vineyard Scott H. Hendrix, 2004-01-01 Scott Hendrix argues in this book that the sixteenth century reformers all shared the same goal to Christianize Christendom that is to replant authentic Christianity in the vineyard of the Lord in the same European Christendom which they believed had been devastated by the medieval church He believes it is more accurate and useful to speak of one Reformation and to locate its diversity in the various theological and practical agendas that were developed to realize the goal of Christianization

Christianities in Migration Peter C. Phan, Elaine Padilla, 2016-04-29 This book migrates through continents regions nations and villages in order to tell the stories of diverse kinds of nomadic dwellers It departs from Africa en routes itself toward Asia Oceania Europe and culminates in the Americas with the territories of Latin America Canada and the United States The volume travels through worn out pathways of migration that continue to be threaded upon today and theologically reflects on a wide range of migratory aims that result also in diverse forms of indigenization of Christianity Among the main issues being considered are How have globalization and migration affected the theological self understanding of Christianity In light of globalization and migration how is the evangelizing mission of Christianity to be understood and carried out What ecclesiastical reforms if any are required to enable the church to meet present day challenges The Mirror of the Medieval K. Patrick Fazioli, 2017-05-01 Since its invention by Renaissance humanists the myth of the Middle Ages has held a uniquely important place in the Western historical imagination Whether envisioned as an era of lost simplicity or a barbaric nightmare the medieval past has always served as a mirror for modernity This book gives an eye opening account of the ways various political and intellectual projects from nationalism to the discipline of anthropology have appropriated the Middle Ages for their own ends Deploying an interdisciplinary toolkit author K Patrick Fazioli grounds his analysis in contemporary struggles over power and identity in the Eastern Alps while also considering the broader implications for scholarly research and public memory

A Companion to the Early Middle Ages Pauline Stafford, 2012-12-26 Drawing on 28 original essays A Companion to the Early Middle Ages takes an inclusive approach to the history of Britain and Ireland from c 500 to c 1100 to overcome artificial distinctions of modern national boundaries A collaborative history from leading scholars covering the key debates and issues Surveys the building blocks of political society and considers whether there were fundamental differences across Britain and Ireland Considers potential factors for change including the economy Christianisation and the Vikings

Remaking Identities Benjamin David Lieberman, 2013 The Formation of Christian Europe Owen M. Phelan, 2014-10-23 The Formation of Christian Europe analyses the Carolingians efforts to form a Christian Empire with the organizing principle of the sacrament of baptism Owen M Phelan argues that baptism provided the foundation for this society and offered a medium for the communication and the popularization of beliefs and ideas through which the Carolingian Renewal established the vision of an imperium christianum in Europe He analyses how baptism unified people theologically socially and politically and helped Carolingian leaders order their approaches to public life It enabled reformers to think in ways which were ideologically consistent publically available and socially useful Phelan also examines the influential court intellectual Alcuin of York who worked to implement a sacramental society through baptism The book finally looks at the dissolution of Carolingian political aspirations for an imperium christianum and how by the end of the ninth century political frustrations concealed the deeper achievement of the Carolingian Renewal The Conversion of the Pagan World Paolo Manna, 1921
