Haunted by eerie visions. Guarded by a captivating warrior. Hunted by a vengeful goddess. And that's just the start of Meghan's troubles with the fae. Meghan Elam has been strange her entire life. Her eyes have this odd habit of changing color, and she sees and hears things no one else can. On the eve of her seventeenth birthday, the visions and voices in her head grow worse, making her believe she's lost her mind. That is, until the captivating Cade MacRoich arrives with an explanation of his own. Cade brings Meghan news of Eile, an enchanted Celtic realm brimming with ancient magic, a world where whispering spirits exist in the very earth, and a place where Meghan just might find the answers she has always sought. Celtic lore blends beautifully with the modern world in this young adult paranormal romance series starter. The Furies of Marjorie Bowen John C. Tibbetts, 2019-11-25. This first book-length critical examination of the life and work of Marjorie Bowen (1885-1952) reveals a major English writer whose prodigious output included stories of history, romance, and the supernatural. As Pulitzer Prize-winning critic Michael Dirda writes in his Foreword, Bowen may be the finest British woman writer of the uncanny of the last century, a view that echoes the high regard of cultural historian Edward Wagenknecht, who called her a literary phenomenon, one whose best work places her alongside such contemporaries as Edith Wharton and Daphne du Maurier. Publicly acclaimed, known only by a series of pseudonyms including Marjorie Bowen, but privately inscrutable, she was and is a mysterious and complex character. Drawing for the first time upon archival resources and the cooperation of the Bowen Estate, this book reveals a woman who saw herself as a rationalist and serious historian but also as a mystic and dark enchantress of dread. Above all, through a lifetime of domestic storms and creative ecstasy, Bowen worked tirelessly as both a professional writer and a consummate artist, always seeking, as she once confessed, to find beauty in dark places. The Leisure Hour, 1904 The Best Novels of the Nineties Linda Parent Leshner, 2015-11-17. This reader's guide provides uniquely organized and up-to-date information on the most important and enjoyable contemporary English language novels. Offering critically substantiated reading recommendations, careful cross-referencing, and extensive indexing, this book is appropriate for both the weekend reader looking for the best new mystery and the full-time graduate student hoping to survey the latest in magical realism. More than 1,000 titles are included, each entry citing major reviews and giving a brief description for each book. The Great Encounter of China and the West, 1500-1800 D. E. Mungello, 2009-03-16. For the Chinese, the drive toward growing political and economic power is part of an ongoing effort to restore China's past greatness and remove the lingering memories of history's humiliations. This widely praised book explores the 1500-1800 period before China's decline when the country was viewed as a leading world culture and power. D. E. Mungello argues that this earlier era ironically may contain more relevance for today than the more recent past. This fully revised fourth edition retains the clear and concise quality of its predecessors while drawing on a wealth of
