Animated Documentary Annabelle Honess Roe, 2013-06-11 Animated Documentary the first book to be published on this fascinating topic considers how animation is used as a representational strategy in nonfiction film and television and explores the ways animation expands the range and depth of what documentary can show us about the world On behalf of the Society for Animation Studies SAS the Chair of the Jury announced the book as the winner of the delayed 2015 SAS McLaren Lambart Award with the following words Animated Documentary is a vital addition to both animation scholarship and film studies scholarship more broadly expertly achieving the tricky challenge of synthesising these two scholarly traditions to provide a compelling and brilliantly coherent account of the animated documentary form At the heart of Roe's book is the conviction that animated documentary has the capacity to represent temporally geographically and psychologically distal aspects of life beyond the reach of live action p 22 As a representational strategy Roe details how animated documentary can be seen to adopt techniques of mimetic substitution non mimetic substitution and evocation in response to the limitations of live action material p 26 Animated Documentary will without doubt become an essential resource for many years to come for anyone interested in the intersection of animation and documentary

The Classical Animated Documentary and Its Contemporary Evolution Cristina Formenti, 2022-03-24 The Classical Animated Documentary and Its Contemporary Evolution is the first book to provide an historical insight into the animated documentary Drawing on archival research and textual analysis it shows how this form usually believed to be strictly contemporaneous instead took shape in the 1940s Cristina Formenti integrates a theoretical and a historical approach in order to shed new light on the animated documentary as a form as well as on the work of renowned studios such as The Walt Disney Studios Halas Batchelor National Film Board of Canada and never before addressed ones such as Corona Cinematografica She also highlights the differences and the similarities existing among the animated documentaries created between the 1940s and the mid 1980s and those produced today so as to demonstrate how the latter do not represent a complete otherness in respect to the former but rather an evolution

Drawn from Life Jonathan Murray, 2018-11-14 Explores intrinsic connections between early modern intelligencers and metadrama in the plays of Shakespeare's contemporaries

A Case for the Animated Documentary Jessica Susan Hann, 2012 Animation and documentary appear as oxymoronic terms one encompassing all that is fantastical and imagined while the other stands firm in reality and truth but animated documentaries have been in existence since the early 20th Century Until recently they have not been of interest to the public or critics In an effort to validate animated documentaries as an art form and thus a genre for serious consideration scholars are currently focusing on defining and categorizing animated documentaries Unfortunately this is resulting in overly restrictive boundaries that films must adhere to in order to fall into the animated documentary category In this paper I argue for more encompassing definitions while questioning the need for validation In a world where boundaries between man and woman human and non human and natural and unnatural are breaking down perhaps animated documentaries are an ideal representation of this emerging new world
