Evans, 2009-05 The focus of this teaching and study material is not only to bring clarity and understanding to the apostolic and prophetic offices but also to the apostolic and prophetic anointings These lessons will help individuals to recognize the operations of these anointings in the lives of believers Apostolic and Prophetic Foundations 101 Evans Roderick L. Clay Jackson MD DipTh, 2025-02-13 What if we re missing something The New Testament describes a vibrant church empowered by the Holy Spirit with supernatural gifts of manifestation service and leadership which turned the known world upside down within three generations But as the freedom of the operation of the Holy Spirit waned and post apostolic leaders consolidated power within hierarchical systems that missional momentum was truncated In this pivotal work Dr Jackson brings an Apostolic hermeneutic to the scriptures and mountain of classical and contemporary sources to demonstrate that this historical declension from scriptural truths began its long reversal with the Reformation culminating in the worldwide outpouring of the Holy Spirit in the early 20th century The restorationist impulse of the pioneers of modern Pentecostalism caused them to embrace previously neglected manifestation gifts charismata but did not substantially alter their ecclesiology as they failed to fully actualize the edification gifts domata Dr Jackson details the function and characteristics of each edification gift or speaking leadership role within a scriptural framework of an apostolic team He warns against excesses and abuses of power and reminds each disciple maker that the character of the Giver not the characteristics of the gift is the true determinant of our ability to serve faithfully This book will challenge the pastor theologian to rethink church leadership and to reengage the whole church in the kingdom expansion that characterized early Christianity It will provide enrichment and clarity regarding the roles of those who portray and embody various types of edification leadership gifts The result will be a church whose missional impulse is not outsourced to designees but internalized within each member of a Body that is equipped for service within local and global contexts

The Development of Dogma Guy Mansini, 2023-10-27 The Development of Dogma examines the nature of dogmatic statements and the causes of development It devotes particular attention to the emergence of the form of dogmatic statements at the Council of Nicaea but notes how this form is anticipated in the New Testament It situates dogma and its development within the matrix of the great fundamental theological realities of Scripture Tradition and Magisterium Fr Mansini examines at some length how the Church comes to recognize a development as a genuine development rather than as a distortion of the word of God The Development of Dogma is especially valuable today for its discussion and defense of the philosophical presuppositions of dogma which are often simply presupposed but should not be ignored in a complete account of development These presuppositions touch on fundamental philosophical issues including the nature of knowledge the objectivity and trustworthiness of names and the various logical forms employed in understanding how development is related to a closed revelation The historicity of human knowledge is also addressed and the role of dogma itself in heading off the extreme relativism the historical nature of man is supposed to imply for ecclesial faith and life The Church's dogma about dogma enunciated at the First Vatican Council is also examined The role of certain fundamental concepts in understanding the possibility of the irreformability of dogma it speaks of is expressly addressed concepts in principle accessible to all human beings and that enable a trans cultural trans temporal proposal and reception of revealed truth

The Prophetic Faith of Our Fathers: Early church exposition, subsequent deflections, and medieval revival Le Roy Edwin Froom, 1946 Men and Women in the Household of God Korinna Zamfir, 2013-04-10

Korinna Zamfir explores the manner in which the Pastoral Epistles redefine roles and ministries within a changed ecclesiological framework the ekklesia as oikos Theou. The contextual investigation focuses on the cultural and social background of the station codes and church orders. Applying the environmental approach advanced by Abraham Malherbe, Zamfir discusses the Pastoral Epistles as writings intimately linked to their Greco-Roman social and cultural environment. The volume addresses the mentalities reflected in moral philosophies, political theories, drama and epigraphy focusing on the discourse articulated in these sources. Exploring the adoption of conservative mentalities, the monograph advances a reading of the Pastoral Epistles based on ideology critique. It also incorporates insights gained from research on the social world of earliest Christianity in particular on private associations. Korinna Zamfir argues that the ecclesiology of the Pastoral Epistles presupposes the metaphorical use of oikos Theou and shows that in Greco-Roman antiquity oikos denotes larger social entities like the religious association, the polis and the cosmos. The ekklesia is the oikos and polis of God. As a consequence, the Pastoral Epistles define roles and ministries based on the public-private divide and on honor and shame mentality. The theological and cosmic dimension of the household of God explains the essentialist understanding of social and ecclesial roles. The author also tackles the contrast between discourse and ecclesial reality.
