The Autobiography of Madame Guyon Jeanne Marie Bouvier,2023-01-07 Jeanne Marie Bouvier de la Motte Guyon Commonly known as Madame Guyon 13 April 1648 9 June 1717 was a French mystic accused of advocating Quietism although she never called herself a Quietist Quietism was considered heretical by the Roman Catholic Church and she was imprisoned from 1695 to 1703 after publishing the book A Short and Very Easy Method of Prayer Guyon believed that one should pray at all times and that one should devote all of one's time to God Prayer is the key of perfection and of sovereign happiness it is the efficacious means of getting rid of all vices and of acquiring all virtues for the way to become perfect is to live in the presence of God He tells us this Himself walk before Me and be blameless Genesis 17 1 Prayer alone can bring you into His presence and keep you there continually As she wrote in one of her poems There was a period when I chose a time and place for prayer But now I seek that constant prayer in inward stillness known In the Christian dispute regarding grace and works Guyon defended the belief that salvation is the result of grace rather than works Like St Augustine St Thomas Aquinas Calvin and Martin Luther she thought that a person's deliverance can only come from God as an outside source never from within the person himself or herself As a result of His own free will God bestows his favour as a gift In her autobiography for example Madame Guyon criticized self righteous people who try to gain heaven through their works She praised lowly sinners who merely submitted themselves to God's will Of the so called righteous she wrote the righteous person supported by the great number of works of righteousness he presumes to have done seems to hold his salvation in his own hands and regards heaven as the recompense due to his merits His Saviour is for him almost useless These righteous persons expect God to save them as a reward for their good works In contrast to the self sufficient righteous egoists the sinners who have selflessly submitted to God are carried swiftly by the wings of love and confidence into the arms of their Saviour who gives them gratuitously what He has infinitely merited for them God's bounties are effects of His will and not the fruits of our merits wikipedia org Autobiography of Madame Guyon Jeanne Guyon,2007-12-01
