Beirut I Love You A Memoir:

Beirut, I Love You Zena el Khalil, 2012-10-16 Zena el Khalil a young Beirut based female artist writer and activist who had an unconventional but worldly upbringing growing up in Lagos Nigeria and attending art school in New York returns after 9 11 to her familial home of Beirut and its mountains beaches food music and drugs Beirut I Love You spanning from 1994 to the present day brings Beirut to life in all its glory and contradictions and is filled with personal anecdotes of Zena's life there a place where in spite of the pervasive desire for hope and the resilience of its people still bears deep scars from the Lebanese Civil War and the Israeli invasion of 2006 a place where plastic surgery and AK 47s live side by side and nightclubs are situated on rooftops in order to avoid car bombs Yet Zena and her friends in particular her fellow rebel Maya refuse to accept the extreme poles of Beirut the militias and gender restrictions on one side hedonism and materialism on the other And although Zena experiences tragedy and loss her story is a testament to the power of love and friendship and the beauty of her city and its inhabitants Written with an honest profound simplicity Zena is intoxicated by the country's contradictions Lebanon was and always will be schizophrenic and attempts to come to terms with her role among her friends family and city

Postcolonial Memoir in the Middle East Norbert Bugeja, 2012 This book reconsiders the notion of liminality in postcolonial critical discourse today By visiting Mashriqi writers of memoir Bugeja offers a unique intervention in the understanding of in between and threshold states in present day postcolonialist thought His analysis situates liminal space as a fraught form of consciousness that mediates between conditions of historical contingency and the memorializing present Within the present Mashriqi memoir form liminal spaces may be read as articulations of representational spaces narrative spaces that based as they are within the histories of local communities are nonetheless redolent with memorial and imaginary elements Liminal consciousness today Bugeja argues is a direct consequence of the impact of volatile present day memories on the re conception of the open wounds of history Incisive readings of life writings by Mourid Barghouti Amin Maalouf Orhan Pamuk Amos Oz and Wadad Makdisi Cortas demonstrate the double edged representational chasm that opens up when present acts of memorializing are brought to bear upon the elusive histories of the early twentieth century Mashriqi Sifting through the wide ranging theoretical literature on liminality and challenging received views of the concept this book proposes a nuanced materialist and original rethinking of the liminal as a more vigilant outlook onto the political literary and historical predicaments of the contemporary Middle East

Queer Beirut Sofian Merabet, 2014-10-15 Gender and sexual identity formation is an ongoing anthropological conversation in both Middle Eastern studies and urban studies but the story of gay and lesbian identity in the Middle East is only just beginning to be told Queer Beirut is the first ethnographic study of queer lives in the Arab Middle East Drawing on anthropology urban studies gender studies queer studies and sociocultural theory Sofian Merabet's compelling ethnography suggests a critical theory of gender and religious identity formations that will disrupt conventional anthropological premises about the contingent role that society and particular urban spaces have in facilitating the emergence of various subcultures within the city From 1995 to 2014 Merabet made a series of ethnographic journeys to Lebanon during which he interviewed numerous gay men in Beirut Through their life stories Merabet crafts moving ethnographic narratives and explores how Lebanese gays inhabit and perform their gender as they formulate their sense of identity He also examines the notion of queer space in Beirut and the role that this city its class and sectarian structure its colonial history and religion have played in these people s discovery and exploration of their sexualities In using Beirut as a microcosm for the complexities of homosexual relationships in contemporary Lebanon Queer Beirut provides a critical standpoint from which to deepen our understandings of gender rights and citizenship in the structuring of social inequality within the larger context of the Middle East Precarious Imaginaries of Beirut Judith Naeff,2017-12-01 This book investigates a shared experience of time and space in the post civil war city of Beirut the suspended now Based on the close analysis of a large corpus of cultural objects including visual art literature architecture and cinema the book argues that last decades have witnessed a gradual shift in understanding this temporality from being a transitional phase to a more durable experience of precariousness The theoretically rich analyses take us on a journey through Beirut s real and imagined geographies from garbage dumps to real estate advertisements and from subterranean spaces to martyr s posters For scholars of cultural analysis urban studies cultural geography and critical theory the case of post 1990 Beirut offers a fascinating case of neoliberal urban renewal which challenges existing theories For scholars of Lebanon and Beirut this study complements existing work on post civil war Lebanese cultural production rooted in trauma studies by its focus on the city s continual exposure to violence The Fragmenting Force of Memory Norman Saadi Nikro,2012-04-25 This study is about experimental forms of cultural production that situate and work through personal experiences of the civil war in Lebanon It addresses selected works of literature autobiography and memoir by Jean Said Makdisi Rashid al Daif Elias Khoury and Mai Ghoussein and the civil war trilogy of documentary films by Mohamed Soueid From a phenomenological hermeneutic perspective the book is concerned with how they give accounts of themselves as remnants leftovers and undigested remains of the civil war and of related trajectories of ideological attachment to symbolic mandates Constrained to reposition their sense of self from an agent of history to a casualty of history their acutely personal works of cultural production initiate an unraveling of both self and circumstance through the fragmenting force of memory Drawing on a broad range of phenomenological critical theory within the research fields of postcolonial memory psychoanalytic gender and literary studies attuned to subjectivity as a field of social production and exchange emphasis is given to how the writers and filmmaker employ a non presentist anachronic or paratactic register of memory to excavate both a historical understanding of self and related modalities of social viability This concerns how the symptomatic style of their work embodies and creatively and critically situates a refusal to package and normalize any idealized account of the war related assemblages of temporal succession or a presentation of self as discrete and omniscient The Routledge Companion to Global Popular
