Writing travel, writing life Pia Sójka, 2023-01-10 The book compares the texts of three Swiss authors Ella Maillart Annemarie Schwarzenbach and Nicolas Bouvier The focus is on their trip from Geneva to Kabul that Ella Maillart and Annemarie Schwarzenbach made together in 1939-1940 and Nicolas Bouvier 1953-1954 with the artist Thierry Vernet The comparison shows the strong connection between the journey and life and between ars vivendi and travel literature This book also gives an overview of and organises the numerous terms genres and categories that already exist to describe various travel texts and proposes the new term travelling narration The travelling narration looks at the text from a narratological perspective that distinguishes the author narrator and protagonist within the narration In the examination ten motifs could be found to characterise the travelling narration Culture Crossing Borders Freedom Time and Space the Aesthetics of Landscapes Writing and Reading the Self and as the Other Home Religion and Spirituality as well as the Journey The importance of each individual motif does not only apply in the 1930s or 1950s but also transmits important findings for living together today and in the future

Catastrophe & Spectacle Martina Bengert, Vittoria Borsò, Davide Caliaro, Jörg Dünne, Jean-Pierre Dupuy, Jörn Etzold, Gesine Hindemith, Marie-Hélène Huet, Walburga Hülk-Althoff, Judith Kasper, Françoise Lavocat, Bettine Menke, Markus Ophälders, Giulia Palladini, Kati Röttger, Gianluca Solla, Johannes Ungelenk, 2018-02-14 From epidemics in the 17th century and the Lisbon earthquake in 1755 to Guernica in World War II the essays in this volume trace the development of the catastrophic imagination relying heavily on pictorial media and different forms of staging Catastrophe in its modern sense seems to be inextricably linked to its spectacular representation be it on the stage on screen or in popular amusement parks But the modern relationship between catastrophe and spectacle is also increasingly confronting us with the unimaginable side of catastrophe particularly with regard to the Holocaust and in more recent times to the daily experience of refugees The essays in this volume elucidate images of the catastrophes that have inspired them by providing a textual commentary that makes it possible to reconsider how the spectacular and the catastrophic are interrelated Thus the essays not only deal with the emergence of the modern spectacular imagination of catastrophe in terms of the history of both discourse and media they also present themselves as a critique of catastrophe one based on close readings of the scenes and images in question
