All About Fatma Lily Calla:

All About Fatma Lily Calla, 2013-10-01 This is a story of miracles that begin to happen to Fatma who works as a housekeeper for Jael. A miracle isn't against the laws of nature. On the contrary, it shows us that above all, our belief in the cause can justify the result. This story is a fun and humorous one about house cleaning and about real life, and in the story, there are mice that sing, elephants that sigh, and flowers and plants that grow at a rather alarming rate. This story is designed to bring adults and children together to talk about the importance of responsibility but also to show how the underlying reason for being responsible in daily matters can also be in sync with our natural surroundings and bring us closer to these things. The story also has some interactions that show how to react when under pressure instead of getting stressed.
