

ASSETS

Assets are resources owned by a business that have economic value. They are the result of investments made by the business or its owners. Assets are recorded on the balance sheet and are classified into current assets and non-current assets.

Current Assets are assets that are expected to be converted into cash or sold within one year. Examples include cash, accounts receivable, inventory, and prepaid expenses.

Non-current Assets are assets that are not expected to be converted into cash or sold within one year. Examples include property, plant, and equipment, and intangible assets.

LIABILITIES

Liabilities are obligations or debts that a business owes to others. They are recorded on the balance sheet and are classified into current liabilities and non-current liabilities.

Current Liabilities are liabilities that are expected to be paid or settled within one year. Examples include accounts payable, short-term debt, and accrued liabilities.

Non-current Liabilities are liabilities that are not expected to be paid or settled within one year. Examples include long-term debt and deferred tax liabilities.

CONTRIBUTED CAPITAL

Contributed Capital represents the amount of capital that has been contributed by the owners of the business. It is recorded on the balance sheet and is classified into common stock and preferred stock.

Common Stock is the most basic form of equity. It represents the ownership of the business and is sold at a fixed price.

Preferred Stock is a type of equity that has certain rights and privileges, such as the right to receive dividends before common stock.

RETAINED EARNINGS

Retained Earnings represent the portion of a company's profits that are retained within the company rather than being paid out as dividends. They are recorded on the balance sheet and are classified into accumulated profits and dividends or drawings.

Accumulated Profits are the profits that have been retained by the company over time. They are used to fund the company's operations and growth.

Dividends or Drawings are the amounts that are paid out to the owners of the business. They are recorded as a reduction in retained earnings.

EQUITY

Equity represents the ownership interest in a business. It is the sum of contributed capital and retained earnings. Equity is recorded on the balance sheet and is classified into common equity and preferred equity.

Common Equity is the equity that is owned by the common shareholders of the business. It includes common stock and retained earnings.

Preferred Equity is the equity that is owned by the preferred shareholders of the business. It includes preferred stock and dividends in arrears.
