Sociocultural and Power-Relational Dimensions of Multilingual Writing Amir Kalan,2021-05-14

This book examines the writing practices of three adult multilingual writers through the prism of their writing in English as an additional language It illustrates some of the social cultural and political contexts of the writers literacy activities and discusses how these impact their literate and intellectual lives It reflects on the para and meta textual dimensions of writing because organic writing practices are almost always performed within sociocultural and power relational contexts In our highly compartmentalized educational structures writing education has been severed from those organic components focusing mainly on writing stylistics This book proposes creating space for organic writing practices in our everyday writing pedagogies and argues for a writing pedagogy that acknowledges the complex interactions of social emotional and identity related layers of writing

Instructional Leadership Efforts and Evidence-Based Practices to Improve Writing Instruction

VanSlander, Jennifer,2023-10-11 Writing is a critical skill for academic and professional success yet it is often neglected in schools According to achievement data only a quarter of students in the United States are proficient writers indicating a significant need for improvement in writing instruction One contributing factor to this problem is the lack of school and district leadership in writing instruction School improvement efforts are often concentrated on reading and math leaving writing instruction overlooked Additionally issues related to writer identities self efficacy in writing and educator training can also impact the effectiveness of instructional leadership in this critical subject Instructional Leadership Efforts and Evidence Based Practices to Improve Writing Instruction edited by Jennifer VanSlander of Columbus State University provides within this peer reviewed book an exploration of evidence based practices aimed at developing instructional leaders and enhancing student achievement in writing It covers a broad range of topics related to writing instruction including learning theories conceptual models and the latest empirical research associated with the supervision organization implementation and monitoring of writing programs and instructional approaches With its emphasis on writer identities self efficacy equitable and inclusive practices curriculum planning and implementation assessment instructional frameworks and managing instructional change this book provides educators with a comprehensive guide to improving writing instruction It is an essential resource for educators who seek to increase the effectiveness of instructional leadership and writing instruction at the classroom school or district level
