Beyond The Subtitle Remapping European Art Cinema:

Beyond the Subtitle Mark Betz, 2009 Examining European art films of the 1950s and 1960s Mark Betz argues that it is time for film analysis to move beyond prevailing New Wave historiography mired in outdated notions of nationalism and dragged down by decades of auteurist criticism Focusing on the cinemas of France and Italy Betz reveals how the flowering of European art films in the postwar era is inseparable from the complex historical and political frameworks of the time

European Art Cinema John White, 2016-10-14 European art cinema includes some of the most famous films in cinema history It is elite filmmaking that stands in direct opposition to popular cinema and yet it also has an intimate relationship with Hollywood This guidebook sketches successive phases of art cinema in Europe from its early beginnings of putting Shakespeare's plays on the screen through movements such as Expressionism and Surrealism to the New Waves of the 1960s and more recent incarnations like Dogme 95 Using film examples John White examines basic critical approaches to art cinema such as semiotics and auteur theory as well as addressing recurring themes and ideas such as existentialism and Christian belief The different levels of political commitment and social criticism which appear in many of these films are also discussed The book includes case studies of eight representative films The Cabinet of Dr Caligari Wiene 1920 Earth Dovzhenko 1930 A Man Escaped Bresson 1956 Hiroshima mon amour Resnais 1959 Aguirre Wrath of God Herzog 1972 Comrades Douglas 1986 Le Quattro Volte Frammartino 2010 Silence Collins 2012 Beyond the Bottom Line Andrew Spicer, Anthony McKenna, Christopher Meir, 2014-07-31 This is the first collection of original critical essays devoted to exploring the misunderstood neglected and frequently caricatured role played by the film producer The editors introduction provides a conceptual and methodological overview arguing that the producer's complex and multifaceted role is crucial to a film's success or failure The collection is divided into three sections where detailed individual essays explore a broad range of contrasting producers working in different historical geographical generic and industrial contexts Rather than suggest there is a single type of producer the collection analyses the rich variety of roles producers play providing fascinating and informative insights into how the film industry actually works This groundbreaking collection challenges several of the conventional orthodoxies of film studies providing a new approach that will become required reading for scholars and students Art Cinema and Neoliberalism Alex Lykidis, 2021-03-18 Art Cinema and Neoliberalism surveys cinematic responses to neoliberalism across four continents One of the first in depth studies of its kind this book provides an imaginative reassessment of art cinema in the new millennium by showing how the exigencies of contemporary capitalism are exerting pressure on art cinema conventions Through a careful examination of neoliberal thought and practice the book explores the wide ranging effects of neoliberalism on various sectors of society and on the evolution of film language Alex Lykidis evaluates the relevance of art cinema style to explanations of the neoliberal order and uses a case study approach to analyze the films of acclaimed directors such as Asghar Farhadi Yorgos Lanthimos and Lucrecia Martel in relation to the social political and cultural characteristics of neoliberalism By connecting the aesthetics of art cinema to current social antagonisms Lykidis positions class as a central concern in our understanding of the polarized dynamics of late capitalism and the escalating provocations of today s film auteurs ReFocus: The Films of Xavier Dolan Andree

Lafontaine,2019-07-29 This book looks at Spike Jonze s ground breaking work in both features and short forms exploring the impact of his filmmaking across a range of philosophical and cultural discussions Hollywood Exiles in Europe Rebecca Prime,2014-01-14 Rebecca Prime documents the untold story of the American directors screenwriters and actors who exiled themselves to Europe as a result of the Hollywood blacklist During the 1950s and 1960s these Hollywood migr s directed wrote or starred in almost one hundred European productions their contributions ranging from crime film masterpieces like Du rififi chez les hommes 1955 Jules Dassin director to international blockbusters like The Bridge on the River Kwai 1957 Carl Foreman and Michael Wilson screenwriters and acclaimed art films like The Servant 1963 Joseph Losey director At once a lively portrait of a lesser known American lost generation and an examination of an important transitional moment in European cinema the book offers a compelling argument for the significance of the blacklisted migr s to our understanding of postwar American and European cinema and Cold War relations Prime provides detailed accounts of the production and reception of their European films that clarify the ambivalence with which Hollywood was regarded within postwar European culture Drawing upon extensive archival research including previously classified material Hollywood Exiles in Europe suggests the need to rethink our understanding of the Hollywood blacklist as a purely domestic phenomenon By shedding new light on European cinema s changing relationship with Hollywood the book illuminates the postwar shift from national to transnational cinema Contemporary Asian Popular Culture Vol. 2 Yeojin Kim,Dharshani Lakmali Jayasinghe,Hiba
