Organizational learning allied with information management and intellectual capital are crucial elements in the success of any business This text moves beyond knowledge management into the realms of corporate dialogue creativity and corporate culture

Managing Organizational Knowledge Jr., Charles A. Tryon, 2016-04-19 Organizations of all sizes and types are facing a dual threat and opportunity At the very moment when global markets are becoming available these organizations are losing valuable people resources due to boomer retirements and downsizing strategies As the technologies arrive to facilitate knowledge sharing across organizational and people bound

Beyond Knowledge Management Silvia Jordan, 2010

Sharing Expertise Mark S. Ackerman, Volkmar Pipek, Volker Wulf, 2003 The field of knowledge management focuses on how organizations can most effectively store manage retrieve and enlarge their intellectual properties The repository view of knowledge management emphasizes the gathering providing and filtering of explicit knowledge The information in a repository has the advantage of being easily transferable and reusable But it is not easy to use decontextualized information and users often need access to human experts This book describes a more recent approach to knowledge management which the authors call expertise sharing Expertise sharing emphasizes the human aspects cognitive social cultural and organizational of knowledge management in addition to information storage and retrieval Rather than focusing on the management level of an organization expertise sharing focuses on the self organized activities of the organization's members The book addresses the concerns of both researchers and practitioners describing current literature and research as well as offering information on implementing systems It consists of three parts an introduction to knowledge sharing in large organizations empirical studies of expertise sharing in different types of settings and detailed descriptions of computer systems that can route queries assemble people and work and augment naturally occurring social networks within organizations
