Browns Pine Ridge Stories Volume 1:

Brown's Pine Ridge Stories Gary Brown, 2016-02-04 I grew up on a farm in South Georgia near Jay Bird Springs I quickly became my father's shadow as I followed him everywhere he went By the time I was eight years old I could out work most grown men This won me praise from my parents but only disdain from my older siblings On long lonely summer nights with no homework to occupy my time and with poor television reception I fought the isolation I felt by writing stories I mostly wrote about local events but after studying Georgia's involvement in the Civil War in the fifth grade I wrote a complete manuscript about a young couple who accidentally dig up the long lost Confederate gold shipment a story that becomes an international incident Then I wrote a manuscript about political corruption in the Deep South and the pain and suffering inflicted on innocent hard working families Then I wrote about a country boy separated from the love of his life by the young lady's evil uppity mother He becomes a race car driver and through an exciting chain of events is reunited with his heart's desire I also wrote a manuscript about a very smart but lonely young man who becomes deeply involved in the NASA spy satellite program Orphaned shortly after birth his loneliness ends at the age of thirty when he marries a beautiful young lady who he believes is a foreign trade student Unfortunately only days before their first child is to be born he is informed by the CIA that she is actually a spy and that his life is in danger He is suddenly forced to commit a horrible act to save his unborn child In high school I was encouraged by a wonderful teacher Miss Barbara Ann Davidson to become a writer After graduation from high school I worked full time while going to college and continued to help my parents with their farm When I was twenty one I started my own business and a few years later I married Brenda and we started a family It was many years later when I was reunited with my high school teacher that I promised her on her death bed that I would make a diligent effort to become a writer We started mailing manuscripts to publishers movie companies and even to NASCAR I was told my stories were very interesting and exciting but because I was an everyday nobody they weren't willing to help me I was very disappointed so I decided to self publish some of my stories I believe the average person is very important We made this country great and it's our sons and daughters who risk their lives to protect us and we should never accept the label everyday nobody I am pleading for the everyday very essential people for your help to prove to the elitist that they are wrong I pledge to you that I will never stoop to using the F word or God's name in vain to take the place of hard work and true integrity Thank you very much Gary C Brown Illustrated Catalogue of Books, Standard and Holiday McClurg, Firm, Booksellers, Chicago, 1902 The Dull Knives of Pine Ridge, 2002-01-01 Joe Starita tells the triumphant and moving story of a Lakota Northern Cheyenne family In 1878 the renowned Chief Dull Knife who fought alongside Crazy Horse escaped from forced relocation in Indian Territory and led followers on a desperate six hundred mile freedom flight back to their homeland His son George Dull Knife survived the Wounded Knee Massacre and later toured in Buffalo Bill Cody's Wild West Show Guy Dull Knife Sr fought in World War I and took part in the Siege of Wounded Knee in 1973 Guy Dull Knife Jr fought in Vietnam and is now an accomplished artist Starita updates the Dull Knife family history in his new afterword for this Bison Books edition Illustrated Catalogue of Books A.C.
