sense of community Margaret hopes you'll embrace the patterns ideas and suggestions in Knit Knitavian Style She'll be waiting for you to join her on the corner of Inspiration Avenue and Knitavia Blvd Bring your knitting Love Objects Anna Moran, SORCHA O'BRIEN, 2014-08-28 How are love and emotion embodied in material form Love Objects explores the emotional potency of things addressing how objects can function as fetishes symbols and representations active participants in and mediators of our relationships as well as tokens of affection symbols of virility triggers of nostalgia replacements for lost loved ones and symbols of lost places and times Addressing both designed things with attitude and the wild things of material culture Love Objects explores a wide range of objects from 19th century American portraits displaying men's passionate friendships to the devotional and political meanings of religious statues in 1920s Ireland The Mammoth Book of Tasteless and Outrageous Lists Karl Shaw, 2014-11-20 Prepare to be even more revolted flabbergasted appalled and entertained by this incredible follow up collection of bizarre but absolutely true trivia Nothing is too distasteful for this astonishing compendium including scores of eclectic lists to amuse astonish and appal your friends Entries include 10 Road kill Recipes History's 10 Most Murderous Regimes 10 Historic Sex Toys 10 People who Married Their Nieces 10 Deaths by Sex 10 People Killed by Falling Animals 10 Ancient Remedies Containing Body Parts 10 Flatalogical Facts 8 Most Violent National Anthems 15 Premature Obituaries 10 Unusual Royal Deaths 10 Cruel and Unusual Punishments 10 Notable Executions 12 Elizabethan Insults Fray Julia Bryan-Wilson, 2017-10-16 In 1974 women in a feminist consciousness raising group in Eugene Oregon formed a mock organization called the Ladies Sewing Circle and Terrorist Society Emblazoning its logo onto t-shirts the group wryly envisioned female collective textile making as a practice that could upend conventions threaten state structures and wreak political havoc Elaborating on this example as a prehistory to the more recent phenomenon of craftivism the politics and social practices associated with handmaking Fray explores textiles and their role at the forefront of debates about process materiality gender and race in times of economic upheaval Closely examining how amateurs and fine artists in the United States and Chile turned to sewing braiding knotting and quilting amid the rise of global manufacturing Julia Bryan Wilson argues that textiles unravel the high low divide and urges us to think flexibly about what the politics of textiles might be Her case studies from the 1970s through the 1990s including the improvised costumes of the theater troupe the Cockettes the braided rag rugs of US artist Harmony Hammond the thread based sculptures of Chilean artist Cecilia Vicuña the small hand sewn tapestries depicting Pinochet's torture and the NAMES Project AIDS Memorial Quilt are often taken as evidence of the inherently progressive nature of handcrafted textiles Fray however shows that such methods are recruited to often ambivalent ends leaving textiles very much in the fray of debates about feminized labor protest cultures and queer identities the malleability of cloth and fiber means that textiles can be activated or stretched in many ideological directions The first contemporary art history book to discuss both fine art and amateur registers of handmaking at such an expansive scale Fray unveils crucial insights into how textiles inhabit the broad space between artistic and political poles high and low untrained and highly skilled conformist and disobedient craft and art Grave Humor Family Tree Editors, 2010-08-31 People act like being dead is so serious But if you've spent any time in a cemetery you know a lot of those dearly departed have to be rolling over in their graves with laughter This collection of ironic comic and just plain ridiculous tombstones proves that it's possible to have a sense of humor about kicking the bucket Just be careful you don't laugh yourself to death

Texts and Textiles Diana Mary Eva Thomas, 2017-03-07 This study shows how fiction that makes use of textiles as an essential element utilizes synaesthetic writing and synaesthetic metaphor to create an affective link to and response in the reader These links and responses are examined using affect theory from Silvan Tomkins and Brian Massumi and work on synaesthesia by Richard Cytowic Lawrence Marks and V S Ramachandran among others Synaesthetic writing including synaesthetic metaphors has been explored in poetry since the 1920s and more recently in fiction but these studies have been general in nature By narrowing the field of investigation to those novels that specifically employ three types of hand crafted textiles quilt making knitting and embroidery the book isolates how these textiles are used in fiction The combination of synaesthesia memory metaphor and particularly synaesthetic metaphor in fiction with textiles in the text of the case studies selected shows how these are used to create affect in readers enhancing their engagement in the story The work is framed within the context of the history of textile production and the use of textiles in fiction internationally but concentrates on Australian authors who have used textiles in their writing The decision to focus on Australian authors was taken in light of the quality and depth of the writing of textile fiction produced in Australia between 1980 and 2005 in the three categories of hand crafted textiles quilt making knitting and embroidery The texts chosen for intensive study are Kate Grenville's The Idea of Perfection 1999 quilting Marele Day's Lambs of God 1997 knitting and Anne Bartlett's Knitting 2005 knitting Jessica Anderson's Tirra Lirra by the River 1978 embroidery and Marion Halligan's Spider Cup 1990 embroidery
