The Post-2000 Film Western M. Paryz, J. Leo, 2015-06-10 This collection explores the post 2000 film Western With examples ranging from major American films through acclaimed international productions to works such as experimental films and television commercials the contributors seek to account for the appeal and currency of the film Western today

Cinematic perspectives on international law Olivier Corten, Francois Dubuisson, Martyna Falkowska-Clarys, 2021-04-13 The proposed volume consists of an edited collection within the new Melland Schill Guidebooks on International Law MSGIL series In line with the MSGIL objective of inclusiveness originality perspectivism and critical thought the book is the first of an intended series pertaining to perspectives related to the ways in which the arts influence the perception and attitude of the public towards international law and the manner this affects the discipline both in terms of its own development and in terms of its social legitimacy The book contrasts the narratives of international law depicted in cinema and TV productions with the corresponding narratives advanced by legal scholars It identifies a cognitive dissonance between them and ascertains its implications on general perceptions of international law Heroines of Film and Television Norma Jones,Maja Bajac-Carter,Bob Batchelor,2014-04-04 As portrayals of heroic women gain ground in film television and other media their depictions are breaking free of females as versions of male heroes or simple stereotypes of acutely weak or overly strong women Although heroines continue to represent the traditional roles of mothers goddesses warriors whores witches and priestesses these women are no longer just damsels in distress or violent warriors In Heroines of Film and Television Portrayals in Popular Culture award winning authors from a variety of disciplines examine the changing roles of heroic women across time In this volume editors Norma Jones Maja Bajac Carter and Bob Batchelor have assembled a collection of essays that broaden our understanding of how heroines are portrayed across media offering readers new ways to understand perceive and think about women Contributors bring fresh readings to popular films and television shows such as The Girl with the Dragon Tattoo Kill Bill Buffy the Vampire Slayer Weeds Mad Men and Star Trek The representations and interpretations of these heroines are important reflections of popular culture that simultaneously empower and constrain real life women These essays help readers gain a more complete understanding of female heroes especially as related to race gender power and culture A companion volume to Heroines of Comic Books and Literature this collection will appeal to academics and broader audiences that are interested in women in popular culture Migration in Lusophone Cinema C. Rêgo,M. Brasileiro,2014-11-26 With more than 250 million speakers globally the Lusophone world has a rich history of filmmaking This edited volume explores the representation of the migratory experience in contemporary cinema from Portuguese speaking countries exploring how Lusophone films filmmakers producers studios and governments relay narratives of migration Heroism and Gender in War Films Karen A. Ritzenhoff,2014-08-07 Filmic constructions of war heroism have a profound impact on public perceptions of conflicts Here contributors examine the ways motifs of gender and heroism in war films are used to justify ideological positions shape the understanding of the military conflicts support political agendas and institutions and influence collective memory The Routledge Companion to European Cinema Gábor Gergely,Susan Hayward,2021-12-29 Presenting new and diverse scholarship this wide ranging collection of 43 original chapters asks what European cinema tells us about Europe The book engages with European cinema that attends to questions of European colonial racialized and gendered power seeks to decentre Europe itself not merely its putative centres and interrogate Europe s various conceptualizations from a variety of viewpoints It explores the broad complex and heterogeneous community ies produced in and by European films taking in Kurdish Hollywood and Singapore cinema as comfortably as the cinema of Poland Spanish colonial films or the European gangster genre Chapters cover numerous topics including individual films film movements filmmakers stars scholarship representations and identities audiences production practices genres and more all analysed in their context s so as to construct an image of Europe as it emerges from Europe s film corpus The Companion opens the study of European cinema to a broad readership and is ideal for students and scholars in film European studies queer studies and cultural studies as well as historians with an interest in audio visual culture nationalism and transnationalism and those working in language based area studies Home/Fronts Janina Wierzoch,2020-03-03 In recent years the US led invasions of Afghanistan and Iraq have had an impact on the UK rivalled only by Brexit and the global financial crisis For people at home the wars were ever present in the media yet remained distant and difficult to apprehend Janina Wierzoch offers an analytical survey of British contemporary war narratives in novels drama film and television that seek to make sense of the experience The study shows how the narratives instead of reflecting on the UK s role as invader portray war as invading the British home Home loses its post Cold War sense of permanent peace and is recast as a home front where war once again becomes part of what it means to be us Mediated Terrorism in the 21st Century Elena Caoduro,Karen Randell,Karen A. Ritzenhoff,2021-06-19 Mediated Terrorism in the 21st Century offers new interpretations of figures emerging from representations of terrorism and counterterrorism the male hero female agent religious leader victim perpetrator and survivor This collection of essays by a broad array of international scholars reflects the altered image making processes that have developed from George W Bush s war on terror Building on current literature on media and terrorism this volume analyzes the most recent technological developments that have impacted the way we experience terrorism online videos social media cartoons media feeds and drones The authors address different time periods different terrorist groups and explore the way filmmakers and television producers from the USA Europe South Africa and the Middle East are documenting modern wars in popular culture

The Top Books of the Year Border Visions Identity And Diaspora In Film The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the engaging narratives that have captivated audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can succeed. Border Visions Identity And Diaspora In Film : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This captivating historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Border Visions Identity And Diaspora In Film : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is an exceptional and thrilling novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
