Gerald McDermott and YOU Jon C. Stott, 2004-11-30 Playing on the phrase the author and you which is a commonly taught reading comprehension strategy that teaches the learner how to look at the words of an author and make inferences about what is being said this new series will assist the teacher and teacher librarian in understanding the underlying purposes of the author as they prepare learning activities for their students The series that will focus primarily on books for the elementary age child K 6 will feature insights into the author's background purposes and goals in writing his books. By furnishing an overview of the author's works, the books in the series will give teachers the big picture. Each book will feature personal information about the author, including insight into why he writes the type of books he does, plus lesson plans and or activities for each of the author's books featured. These lessons will stress the particular interest of the author, and the author and you, the teacher, will build a collaborative instructional relationship using the material provided. Each book will be written by the featured author or in close collaboration with him. The first book in the series features the life and work of Gerald McDermott Caldecott, winning picture book author. It discusses his life and work and the researching, writing, and illustrating of each book. Discussion of children's reading development, including strategies and visual literacies, and lesson plans and activities for each title provide practical help. This book provides a fascinating window into the life and work of the beloved children's author and gives insight into Anansi Arrow to the Sun Raven Creation and all of his wonderful tales Grades K-6 Stories on the Move Arlene Cohen, 2007-05-30 Energize your story programs by infusing them with the power of movement. This guide offers you dozens of interactive, ready-to-use, age-appropriate and story-based activities that get children actively involved in learning. Designed to expand the child's self-awareness, range of expression, and aesthetic sensibility at particular stages of development from infancy to puberty, these literature-based programs are simple enough to be used by any educator, even if you have little or no dance experience. Included for each program are learning goals, skill development, a literature-story connection, and detailed instructions for movement and vocal improvisation and creative dramatics. A great resource for after-school programs, home schools, and daycare centers. Ages Infant-14. Stories on the Move develops a child's emergent cultural and interpretative literacy skills. The first three chapters for babies, toddlers, and preschoolers are based on nationally recognized standards and methods for tapping emergent literacy skills. The fourth chapter takes children on StoryTrips to other countries and includes language, stories, dances, and customs of those countries. The fifth and sixth chapters for older children show them how to interpret story structure and the elements of character, setting, mood, plot, and theme. Included for each program are learning goals, skill development, a literature-story connection, and detailed instructions for movement and vocal improvisation and creative dramatics. A great resource for after-school programs, home schools, and daycare centers. Ages Infant-14. School Library Media Activities Monthly, 1998 An Annotated Bibliography of Multi-cultural Literature and Related Activities for Children Three to Ten Years Guda Gayle-Evans, 2004 This annotated bibliography has extensive multi-cultural topics which include clothing, travel, intergenerational relationships, food, celebrations, folktales, and moral issues such as good over evil.

Developing Voice Through the Language Arts Kathryn Henn-Reinke, GERALYN A. CHESNER, 2007 Let every voice be heard. Developing Voice Through the Language Arts shows prospective teachers how to use the language arts to connect diverse students to the world around them and help them develop their own literate voices. This book considers the integrated nature of the primary language arts: reading, writing, listening, speaking, viewing, and visually representing. Authors Kathryn Henn

Reinke and GERALYN A Chesner encourage preservice and inservice teachers to take a reflective balanced approach in preparing to teach language arts Cool Story Programs for the School-Age Crowd Rob Reid, 2004-08-02 Offers eighteen offbeat literary programs featuring creepy dirty and stinky stories that will appeal to young readers
