Brown Eyed Girl Grace Jelsnik:

Brown-Eyed Susan Grace Irwin, 1917 Brown Eyed Girl Marcellus Shale, 2011-03-01

Escorted by the smiling Suzy the passengers started from Gate 37C following her like ducks across the tarmac An everyday event Not worthy of a second glance Except that every eye from sixteen to sixty and then some followed the blonde haired woman at the tail of the flock Her hair was piled on top of her head except for the occasional strand that fell across her face asking to be gently brushed away from soft brown eyes that dared you to try to kiss her hoping that you would Her trim body dressed in a two layer mesh top and tennis skirt moved with a dancer s grace and her lithe limbs were long smooth as silk muscular and already tan She looked to be around thirty An incredible thirty She was going to turn forty five in two months Tom and Casey They know that there is more than enough drama in life He knows or hopes that there is someone else who knows that love can last She knows and hopes that there is a man she can trust Neither knows or cares that an Air Force bomber disappeared in plain sight beneath the muddy waters of the Monongahela River in Pittsburgh more than fifty years ago All they wanted to know was whether they cared for each other But now they have to care Because only they know where the plane that had become an urban legend is And that powerful people want what it was carrying And ruthless people still don t want anyone to know that it exists And that when it comes down to it they only have each other My mother always told me that in this country I could grow up to be whatever I wanted to be Well here I am She also told me that change was possible And I really like to write Although my office has given me the opportunity to speak to the public and write for posterity there is a part of me that longs for a tall drink and that cool blonde Or was it the other way around Doesn t matter What matters is that in my heart I m a writer And that one day when I m back to flying civilian when I can relax and walk where the water meets the sand I m looking forward to seeing you at the airport or on a beachside lounge chair having a cool drink turning the pages of this story and to hell with posterity Brown eyed girl Gianluca Giovannetti, 2010
