Investigating Corruption and White-collar Crime in South African Higher Education Bethuel Sibongiseni Ngcamu, 2025-10-16 Using an interpretivist approach this qualitative volume interrogates instances of corruption and white collar crime prevalent in South African higher education institutions and suggests pathways for the proactive detection and prevention of corrupt practices Contextualizing the author's practical experiences gained in the higher education sector over the past two decades this book employs an ethnographical method to explore the complexity of university systems structures and functions that make South Africa's formerly disadvantaged universities more susceptible to corruption In the midst of highly contested divisive and highly politicized ways of reporting corruption in the media chapters provide critical analyses guided by scientific approaches robust data sets and qualitative face to face interviews to underpin the reliability of proposed policy amendments intended to detect and prevent corruption and white collar crime as well as the suggested closure of loop holes that make the sector vulnerable to and known for a high level of criminality Making a substantial contribution to broader academic debate around corruption and university management internationally this book will be of interest to researchers and postgraduate students in the field of higher education higher education management and administration and education policy and politics Policy makers in both the Global South and North are also likely to benefit from this book

Adolescent Psychology in Today's World Michael J. Nakkula, Andrew J. Schneider-Muñoz, 2018-11-02 This groundbreaking three volume set spotlights how conditions around the world are affecting the healthy development of adolescents in their respective environments on all six continents Continually unstable or perpetually poor economic conditions globalization and rapid technological change are just three of the forces affecting a group 1.2 billion strong today a demographic poised to become our world leaders and catalysts in the not too distant future the world's adolescents Led by two editors who have been dedicated to studying adolescent development worldwide for decades this novel collection of works from contributors in more than 40 countries emphasizes how possibilities for healthy mental and physical development are affected by the difficulties youths face in their countries and how these challenges have shaped and are shaping contemporary teenage life today The set comprehensively addresses issues for adolescents across the globe such as the day to day challenges of poverty inadequate education violence or war disease reproductive matters globalization and technological challenges and more while also providing a strengths based focus in the volumes showing how and why some teenagers in each country have surmounted the challenges and forged stronger characters to better their worlds These stories document more than personal victories and their experiences matter to far more than the adolescents themselves In its State of the World s Children 2011 report UNICEF noted that the world community needs to turn its attention to adolescents in need explaining that focusing on this large and potentially powerful group makes economic sense as well as being a necessary step in working towards achieving human justice By addressing the risks challenges and strengths of teenagers as a group in countries worldwide this work serves to break the cycle of poverty violence discrimination and death for adolescents

In the Event Lotte Meinert, Bruce Kapferer, 2015-05-01 Events are generative moments in at least three senses events are created by and condense larger scale social structures as moments they spark and give rise to new social processes in themselves events may also serve to analyze social situations and relationships Based on ethnographic studies from around the world varying from rituals and meetings over protests and conflicts to natural disasters and management this volume analyzes generative moments through events that hold the key to understanding larger social situations These events including the Ashura ritual in Bahrain social cleavages in South Africa a Buddhist cave in Nepal drought in Burkina Faso an earthquake in Pakistan the cartoon crisis in Denmark corporate management at Bang Olufsen protest meetings in Europe and flooding and urban citizenship in Mozambique are not simply destructive disasters crises and conflicts but also generative and constitutive of the social
