

Unit 1 Review

1. What is the difference between the three types of representative democracies: participatory democracy, pluralist democracy, and elite democracy?
 - Participatory – the people directly have the power to make policy
 - Pluralist – different groups compete/have power to make policy
 - Elite – a small group of people who have more power, make policy
2. Give examples of how participatory democracy is presented in American government.
State/local levels of government – initiative, referendum, & recall
 - Initiative – the people initiate/begin a law themselves
 - Referendum – the people vote directly on a law
 - Recall – the people can vote an elected official out of office before their term ends
3. Give examples of how pluralist democracy is presented in American government.
 - Interest groups
 - Political parties
4. Give examples of how elite democracy is presented in American government.
 - Old, white, rich, Protestant, men = Congress
 - Electoral College (electors choose the President)
5. Define popular sovereignty. How is this reflected in American government?
 - Consent of the governed/Government is created and given its power by the people
 - We choose our representatives (Congress members)
6. Define limited government. How is this reflected in American government?
 - A government that has limited powers (Constitution will limit the powers of the government)
 - Separation of powers, checks and balances, federalism, Bill of Rights
7. Define social contract. How is this reflected in American government?
 - Agreement between the people and government (people will agree to give up some freedoms/rights in order to be protected by the government)
 - Bill of Rights is not absolute (ex: can't yell fire in crowded movie theater), PATRIOT ACT after 9/11
8. Define republic. How is this reflected in American government?
 - Political system where people choose representatives to represent them
 - Electing our Congress members
9. What Enlightenment philosopher came up with the idea of natural rights? According to this person
