Reinventing Jewish Art in the Age of Multiple Modernities Lola Kantor-Kazovsky, 2022-12-05 Can studying an artist's migration enable the reconfiguration of art history in a new and global mode Michail Grobman's odyssey in search of a contemporary idiom of Jewish art led him to cross the borders of political blocs and to observe absorb and confront different patterns of modernism in his work His provocative art his rich archives and collections his essays and personal diaries all reveal this complexity and open up a new perspective on post World War II twentieth century modernism and on the interconnected functioning of its local models

Art in the Age of Machine Learning Sofian Audry, 2021-11-23 An examination of machine learning art and its practice in new media art and music Over the past decade an artistic movement has emerged that draws on machine learning as both inspiration and medium In this book transdisciplinary artist researcher Sofian Audry examines artistic practices at the intersection of machine learning and new media art providing conceptual tools and historical perspectives for new media artists musicians composers writers curators and theorists Audry looks at works from a broad range of practices including new media installation robotic art visual art electronic music and sound and electronic literature connecting machine learning art to such earlier artistic practices as cybernetics art artificial life art and evolutionary art Machine learning underlies computational systems that are biologically inspired statistically driven agent based networked entities that program themselves Audry explains the fundamental design of machine learning algorithmic structures in terms accessible to the nonspecialist while framing these technologies within larger historical and conceptual spaces Audry debunks myths about machine learning art including the ideas that machine learning can create art without artists and that machine learning will soon bring about superhuman intelligence and creativity Audry considers learning procedures describing how artists hijack the training process by playing with evaluative functions discusses trainable machines and models explaining how different types of machine learning systems enable different kinds of artistic practices and reviews the role of data in machine learning art showing how artists use data as a raw material to steer learning systems and arguing that machine learning allows for novel forms of algorithmic remixes Chambers's Journal of Popular

Literature, Science and Arts ,1880 Literature And Spirit David Patterson,2014-07-15 If Bakhtin is right Wayne C Booth has said a very great deal of what we western critics have spent our time on is mistaken or trivial or both In Literature and Spirit David Patterson proceeds from the premise that Bakhtin is right Exploring Bakhtin s notions of spirit responsibility and dialogue Patterson takes his reader from the narrow arena of literary criticism to the larger realm of human living and human loving True to the spirit of Bakhtin he draws the Russian into a vibrant dialogue with other thinkers including Foucault Berdyaev Gide Lacan Levinas and Heidegger But he does not stop there He engages Bakhtin in his own insightful and unique dialogue meeting the responsibility and taking the risk summoned by dialogue Literature and Spirit therefore is not a typically cool and detached exercise in academic curiosity Instead it is a passionate and penetrating endeavor to respond to literature and spirit as the links in life s attachment to life The author demonstrates that in deciding something about literature we decide something about the substance and meaning of our lives Far from being a question of commentary or explication he argues our relation to literature is a matter of spiritual life and death The reader who comes before a literary text encounters the human voice And Patterson enables his reader to hear that voice in all its spiritual dimensions Unique in its questions and in its quest Literature and Spirit addresses an audience that goes beyond the ordinary academic categories It appeals not only to students of literature philosophy and religion but to anyone who seeks an understanding of spiritual presence and meaning in life Through his affirmation of what is dear Patterson responds to the needful question And in his response he puts the question to his audience Where are you Literature and Spirit thus speaks to those who face the task of answering Here I am Obituaries in the Performing Arts, 2019 Harris M.
