for the present day The Eloquence of Art Andrea Olsen Lam, Rossitza Schroeder, 2020-04-14 For those within the fields of art history and Byzantine studies Professor Henry Maguire needs no introduction His publications transformed the way art historians approach medieval art through his insightful integration of rhetoric poetry and non canonical objects into the study of Byzantine art His ground breaking studies of Byzantine art that consider the natural world magic and imperial imagery among other themes have redefined the ways medieval art is interpreted From notable monuments to small scale and privately used objects Maguire s work has guided a generation of scholars to new conclusions about the place of art and its function in Byzantium In this volume 23 of Henry Maguire s colleagues and friends have contributed papers in his honour resulting in studies that reflect the broad range of his scholarly interests Proceedings of the 21st International Congress of Byzantine Studies Elizabeth Jeffreys, Fiona K. Haarer, 2006 The theme of the 2006 International Congress of Byzantine Studies was display assessing what strategies the people of Byzantium used to express their thoughts ideals fears and beliefs and how these have been interpreted through various modern discourses The first volume presents the texts of the 28 plenary papers delivered at the Congress the second and third contain the abstracts of the many hundreds of papers written for the 64 separate panels and the sessions of communications Out of Bounds Pamela A. Patton, Maria Alessia Rossi, 2023-10-03 Where are the limits of medieval art as a field of study What happens when conventionally trained art historians disregard the chronological geographical or cultural parameters that both direct and protect their scholarship Beginning with Thelma K Thomas and Alicia Walker s acute assessment of the need for a medieval art history for now the essays in Out of Bounds ask what happens when the study of medieval art disregards boundaries that it once obeyed The volume focuses on questions surrounding the production of knowledge and on how scholarly investigation beyond the conventional thematic boundaries of medieval art history is changing demonstrating how the field can address the ethics of scholarship today by positing a global turn in response to growing demands for socially responsible medieval studies Collectively the contributors demonstrate how going out of bounds can transform modern understanding of the people traditions and relationships that gave rise to medieval works As such this book argues for the necessity of reshaping scholarly discourse about the nature and significance of medieval art and generates fresh scholarly interpretations and important new critical tools for teaching and researching the Middle Ages The contributors to this volume are Suzanne Conklin Akbari Michele Bacci Jill Caskey Eva Frojmovic Sarah M Gu rin Christina Maranci Alice Isabella Sullivan Thelma K Thomas Michele Tomasi and Alicia Walker
