

Exhibition Proposal/ Partnership Terms and Regulations

Introduction:

The City of Brea Art Gallery has operated as a fine arts regional exhibition space since 1980. It is a non-profit, non-collecting museum located at the Brea Civic and Cultural Center in northeast Orange County, California. The City of Brea Art Gallery is a community service of the City of Brea, a General Law City incorporated under the California Municipal Code in 1917. The exhibition area includes approximately 6,000 square feet and hosts four to five major exhibitions per year. All exhibitions are approved by the Gallery's Exhibition Committee as well as the City's Cultural Arts Commission.

Application Process:

The City of Brea Art Gallery does not operate as a rental space. As a community service of the City of Brea, all exhibits hosted at the Gallery undergo a thorough evaluation process before approval. Annual exhibit schedules are typically finalized at least two years in advance. Organizations seeking to partner an exhibition with the City of Brea Art Gallery must complete a three-tiered application process:

- Tier One – Application
 - To initiate the proposal/partnership process, interested persons/organizations must complete the Exhibition Proposal/Partnership Application form and submit it to the City of Brea Art Gallery. Once received, the application will be reviewed by the Exhibitions Committee.
- Tier Two – Formal Proposal
 - If the Exhibitions Committee concludes that the application satisfies all mandatory criteria, the applicant will be asked to develop a Formal Proposal.
 - Formal Proposal to include samples/examples of works, visuals, research and history of previous or similar shows, concepts and ideas, as well as a full description of the exhibition and all related events, materials and collateral for the exhibition. Press from previous exhibitions as well as a full description of the vision and intent of the partnership and exhibition should be submitted as well.
- Tier Three – City Approval /Contract Phase
 - After the Formal Proposal has been submitted it will be evaluated by the Exhibitions Committee and Cultural Arts Commission. If the proposal is denied, you will be notified via email. There may be a follow up meeting with questions and concerns. If approved by the Cultural Arts Commission and the Exhibitions Committee, the proposal will go into the contract phase and terms will need to be negotiated, drafted and agreed to by all parties prior to final approval. If terms cannot be agreed upon by both parties, the proposal will be denied or be asked to resubmit.
