Autobiographical Sketches Mathew Carey, 1970 Autobiographical Sketches (Classic Reprint) Annie Wood Besant, 2015-06-30 Excerpt from Autobiographical Sketches I am so often asked for references to some pamphlet or journal in which may be found some outline of my life and the enquiries are so often couched in terms of such real kindness that I have resolved to pen a few brief autobiographical sketches which may avail to satisfy friendly questioners and to serve in some measure as defence against unfair attack On October 1st 1847 I made my appearance in this vale of tears little Pheasantina as I was irreverently called by a giddy aunt a pet sister of my mother's Just at that time my father and mother were staying within the boundaries of the City of London so that I was born well within the sound of Bow bells Though born in London however full three quarters of my blood are Irish My dear mother was a Morris the spelling of the name having been changed from Maurice some five generations back and I have often heard her tell a quaint story illustrative of that family pride which is so common a feature of a decayed Irish family She was one of a large family and her father and mother gay handsome and extravagant had wasted merrily what remained to them of patrimony I can remember her father well for I was fourteen years of age when he died A bent old man with hair like driven snow splendidly handsome in his old age hot tempered to passion at the lightest provocation loving and wrath in quick succession About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and gripping novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
