Applicable Linguistics Texts Contexts And Meanings:

Applicable Linguistics and Social Semiotics David Caldwell, John S. Knox, J. R. Martin, 2022-10-06 Exploring the relationship between theory and practice in Systemic Functional Linguistics SFL this volume offers a state of the art overview of Applicable Linguistics Featuring both internationally renowned scholars and rising stars from Argentina Australia Austria Brazil Chile Denmark Indonesia New Zealand Singapore and the USA Applicable Linguistics and Social Semiotics examines the theoretical insights questions and developments that have emerged from the application of Systemic Functional theory to a range of fields Beyond simply reporting on the application of SFL to particular sites of communication both linguistic and semiotic this volume demonstrates how SFL has critiqued developed and transformed theory and practice and foregrounds the implications of application for Systemic Functional theory itself Covering established fields for application such as education medicine and media to relatively uncharted areas such as software design and extremist propaganda this volume provides an overview of recent linguistic and semiotic innovations informed by SFL and examines the advances that have been made from many years of productive dialogue between theory and practice The Routledge Handbook of World Englishes Andy Kirkpatrick, 2010-06-17 The Routledge Handbook of World Englishes constitutes a comprehensive introduction to the study of World Englishes drawing on the expertise of leading authors within the field The Handbook is structured in nine sections covering historical perspectives core issues and topics and new debates which together provide a thorough overview of the field taking into account the new directions in which the discipline is heading Among the key themes covered are the development of English as a lingua franca among speakers for whom English is a common but not first language the parallel development of English as a medium of instruction in educational institutions throughout the world and the role of English as the international language of scholarship and scholarly publishing as well as the development of computer mediated Englishes including cyberprose The Handbook also includes a substantial introduction and conclusion from the editor The Routledge Handbook of World Englishes is the ideal resource for postgraduate students of applied linguistics as well as those in related degrees such as applied English language and TESOL TEFL Applicable Linguistics Ahmar Mahboob, Naomi K. Knight, 2010-06-24 This collection of research offers an initial step in the pursuit of an applicable linguistics Applicable Linguistics takes everyday real life language related problems both theoretical and practical in diverse social professional and academic contexts as its starting point It then uses and contributes to a theoretical model of language that can respond to and is applicable in the context The concept of applicable linguistics used in this volume is informed by the work of M A K Halliday who believes that the value of a theory lies in the use that can be made of it The chapters in this volume thus use and contribute to an applicable linguistics that engages with a range of issues including translation education language teaching learning multimodality media social policy and action and positive discourse analysis This collection of research is offered as an initial step in the pursuit of Applicable Linguistics which we hope will serve as a foundation for future work across the discipline Society in Language, Language in Society Wendy L. Bowcher, Jennifer Yameng Liang, 2016-01-26 This collection of original articles covers a range of research connecting with the work of the eminent linguist Ruqaiya Hasan It contains contributions from M A K Halliday G Williams D Butt D Miller and M Berry among others an interview with Ruqaiya Hasan and notes from the contributors about their connection with Ruqaiya Hasan s work New Discourse on Language Monika Bednarek, J. R. Martin, 2011-10-27 New Discourse on Language addresses the need for innovative analyses of multi modal discourse identity and affiliation within functional linguistics The chapters in this volume are connected by their common underlying theoretical approach Systemic Functional Linguistics SFL and by their focus on semantic variation across modalities of communication and between speakers as well as the negotiation of identity and affiliation The analyses focus on a diverse range of texts from very different contexts using analytic techniques that are based on the latest research in this field They represent a wealth of exploratory innovative and challenging perspectives and are a key contribution to the extension of systemic functional theory to the analysis of multimodality identity and affiliation The volume is of interest to linguists applied linguists semioticians and communication theorists The Discourse of News Values Monika Bednarek, Helen Caple, 2017 The Discourse of News Values breaks new ground in multimodal news discourse offering the first book length treatment of the discursive analysis of news values and the construction of newsworthiness The book explores how the news is sold made newsworthy to audiences through the semiotic resources of language and image providing a new analytical framework which can be used by other researchers in their own subsequent studies Writing with Students Lucy Macnaught, 2024-08-08 Beginning with a review of the theory and pedagogic practices that have been influential in English for Academic Purposes EAP contexts this book examines the practice of joint construction in a genre based approach to literacy pedagogy It investigates how teachers guide students to co construct a text drawing attention to the contested rationale for teachers taking a leading role when writing collaboratively with their students Informed by systemic functional linguistics the book puts forward an accessible approach to the analysis of classroom discourse that centres on the dynamic mediation of meaning Through examples of classroom interaction involving international students who are studying EAP and specifically as preparation for university entrance it illuminates how classroom metalanguage and the organisation of classroom talk enables teachers to guide but not provide wording metalanguage also enables students to critique and justify their choices as they try out new academic language modify and improve their writing Introducing Researching English for Specific Purposes Lindy Woodrow, 2022-06-30 Introducing Researching English for Specific Purposes is an accessible and practical guide to research in ESP It s for novice researchers graduate students and for ESP practitioners who want to do some research themselves The author takes the reader step by step through the stages of research starting with choosing a topic and reviewing the literature through to writing up research findings Examples are taken from academic journals and dissertations to highlight aspects of the research process The book covers the following areas developing a research project research design theoretical approaches to ESP research choosing a research topic quantitative qualitative and mixed methods in ESP research validity reliability and ethics writing up research in ESP The book includes recommendations for further reading and tasks There is also a glossary and a chapter providing advice templates and links to useful research sources Introducing Researching English for Specific Purposes is essential reading for anyone wanting to conduct research in ESP Dynamic Assessment of Students' Academic Writing Prithvi N.

Shrestha,2020-09-11 This book explores the application of an innovative assessment approach known as Dynamic Assessment DA to academic writing assessment as developed within the Vygotskian sociocultural theory of learning DA blends instruction with assessment by targeting and further developing students Zone of Proximal Development ZPD The book presents the application of DA to assessing academic writing by developing a set of DA procedures for academic writing teachers It further demonstrates the application of Hallidayan Systemic Functional Linguistics SFL combined with DA to track undergraduate business management students academic writing and conceptual development in distance education This work extends previous DA studies in three key ways i it explicitly focuses on the construction of a macrogenre whole text as opposed to investigations of decontextualized language fragments ii it offers the first in depth application of the powerful SFL tool to analyse students academic writing to track their academic writing trajectory in DA research and iii it identifies a range of mediational strategies and consequently expands Poehner s 2005 framework of mediation typologies Dynamic Assessment of Students Academic Writing will be of great value to academic writing researchers and teachers language assessment researchers and postgraduate students interested in academic writing alternative assessment and formative feedback in higher education Building Knowledge in Higher Education Christine Winberg,Sioux McKenna,Kirstin

Wilmot,2020-05-27 From pressures to become economically efficient to calls to act as an agent of progressive social change higher education is facing a series of challenges There is an urgent need for a rigorous and sophisticated research base to support the informed development of practices Yet studies of educational practices in higher education remain theoretically underdeveloped and segmented by discipline and country Building Knowledge in Higher Education illustrates how Legitimation Code Theory is bringing research together from across the disciplinary map and enabling practical change in a rigorously theorized way The volume addresses both students and educators Part I explores ways of supporting student achievement from STEM to the arts from introductory courses to doctoral training and from using new digital media to reflective writing Part II focuses on academic staff development in higher education reaching from curriculum design to pedagogic practices All chapters focus on issues of contemporary relevance to higher education showing how Legitimation Code Theory enables these issues to be understood and practices improved Building Knowledge in Higher Education brings together internationally renowned scholars in higher education studies academic development academic literacies and sociology with some of the brightest new researchers The volume significantly extends understandings of teaching and learning in changing higher education contexts and so contributes to educational research and practice It will be essential reading not only to scholars and students in these fields but also to scholars and educators in higher education more generally
