New Directions in the Anthropology of Dreaming Jeannette Mageo, Robin E. Sheriff, 2020-10-08 This book presents new directions in contemporary anthropological dream research surveying recent theorizations of dreaming that are developing both in and outside of anthropology It incorporates new findings in neuroscience and philosophy of mind while demonstrating that dreams emerge from and comment on sociohistorical and cultural contexts The chapters are written by prominent anthropologists working at the intersection of culture and consciousness who conduct ethnographic research in a variety of settings around the world and reflect how dreaming is investigated by a range of informants in ever more diverse sites As well as theorizing the dream in light of current anthropological and psychological research the volume accounts for local dream theories and how they are situated within distinct cultural ontologies It considers dreams as a resource for investigating and understanding cultural change dreaming as a mode of thinking through contesting altering consolidating or escaping from identity and the nature of dream mentation In proposing new theoretical approaches to dreaming the editors situate the topic within the recent call for an anthropology of the night and illustrate how dreams offer insight into current debates within anthropology's mainstream. This up-to-date book defines a twenty-first century approach to culture and the dream that will be relevant to scholars from anthropology as well as other disciplines such as religious studies, the neurosciences, and psychology. Corporate Social Responsibility in the 21st Century, 2023-05-03 Corporate social responsibility (CSR) is a fundamental part of corporate entities to assist human efforts toward addressing global challenges rather than exacerbating them.
