Amsterdam In 17e Eeuwse Prent:

A Classified Bibliography of the History of Dutch Medicine 1900-1974 G.A. Lindeboom, 2012-12-06 I In some periods of the past Netherlands medicine has played a major role in the evolution of European medicine today its history still enjoys much interest even at the other side of the Ocean In this bibliography it has been my endeavour to compile references for all that has been written on the history of Dutch medicine in our country and elsewhere in our age The main concern of this work is with the medicine of the Northern Netherlands However before the end of the sixteenth century the Northern and Southern Netherlands were not yet divided into two separate countries they were still politically one and for the greater part spoke the same Flemish language So before their separation the present day Belgium and Netherlands also had a common medical history Therefore many entries have been included which bear on early and sometimes later Flemish medicine but it has not been the intention to strive for completeness in this respect

Asia in the Making of Europe Donald Frederick Lach, Edwin J. Van Kley, 1965 First systematic inclusive study of the impact of the high civilizations of Asia on the development of modern Western civilization Asia in the Making of Europe Donald F. Lach, 1993 Asia in the Making of Europe, Volume III: A Century of Advance. Book 1 Donald F. Lach, Edwin J. Van Kley, 2022-07-01 This monumental series acclaimed as a masterpiece of comprehensive scholarship in the New York Times Book Review reveals the impact of Asia's high civilizations on the development of modern Western society The authors examine the ways in which European encounters with Asia have altered the development of Western society art literature science and religion since the Renaissance In Volume III A Century of Advance the authors have researched seventeenth century European writings on Asia in an effort to understand how contemporaries saw Asian societies and peoples

Catalogue of Old and Modern Books on Commerce and Finances Martinus Nijhoff Publishers, 2013-11-21 The Rise of the Amsterdam Market and Information Exchange Clé Lesger, 2016-12-05 Most scholars agree that during the sixteenth century the centre of European international trade shifted from Antwerp to Amsterdam presaging the economic rise of the Dutch Republic in the following century Traditionally this shift has been accepted as the natural consequence of a dynamic and progressive city such as Amsterdam taking advantage of expanding commercial opportunities at the expense of a more conservative rival hampered by outmoded medieval practices Yet whilst this theory is widely accepted is it accurate In this groundbreaking study Clé Lesger argues that the shift of commercial power from Antwerp to Amsterdam was by no means inevitable and that the highly specialized economy of the Low Countries was more than capable of adapting to the changing needs of international trade It was only when the Dutch Revolt and military campaigns literally divided the Low Countries into separate states that the existing stable spatial economy and port system fell apart and a restructuring was needed Within this process of restructuring the port of Amsterdam acquired a function radically different to the one it had prior to the division of the Netherlands Before the Revolt it had served as the northern outpost in a gateway system centred on Antwerp but with access of that port now denied to the new republic Amsterdam developed as the main centre for Dutch shipping trade and crucially the exchange of information Drawing on a wide variety of neglected archival collections including those of the Bank of Amsterdam this study not only addresses specific historical questions concerning the commercial life of the Low Countries but through the case study of Amsterdam also explores wider issues of early modern European commercial trade and economic development

Imagining the Americas in Print Michiel van Groesen, 2019-09-16 In Imagining the Americas in Print Michiel van Groesen reveals the variety of ways in which publishers and printers in early modern Europe gathered information about the Americas constructed a narrative and used it to further colonial ambitions in the Atlantic world 1500 1700 The essays examine the creative ways in which knowledge was manufactured in printing workshops Collectively they bring to life the vivid print culture that determined the relationship between the Old World and the New in the Age of Encounters and chart the genres that reflected and shaped the European imagination and helped to legitimate ideologies of colonialism in the next two centuries

Print and Power in Early Modern Europe (1500-1800) Nina Lamal, Jamie Cumby, Helmer J. Helmers, 2021-06-08 Print in the early modern period could make or break power This volume addresses one of the most urgent and topical questions in early modern history how did European authorities use a new medium with such tremendous potential The eighteen contributors develop new perspectives on the relationship between the rise of print and the changing relationships between subjects and rulers by analysing print's role in early modern bureaucracy the techniques of printed propaganda genres and strategies of state communication While print is often still thought of as an emancipating and disruptive force of change in early modern societies the resulting picture shows how instrumental print was in strengthening existing power structures Contributors Renaud Adam Martin Christ Jamie Cumby Arthur der Weduwen Nora Epstein Andreas Golob Helmer Helmers Jan Hillgräner Rindert Jagersma Justyna Kiliaczyk Zi-ba Nina Lamal Margaret Meserve Rachel Midura Gautier Mingous Ernesto E Oyarbide Magaña Caren Reimann Chelsea Reutchke Celyn David Richards Paolo Sachet Forrest Strickland and Ramon Voges

Trials of Convergence Arthur van Riel, 2021-06-22 For over a century now historians have debated the causes of the lagged industrialization of the Dutch economy during the nineteenth century To this debate Trials of Convergence brings the analytical perspective of prices factor costs and the functioning of markets Its critical insight is that only an approach based on the integrated incentive structure of the economy allows us to delimit the role of alternative explanations Using statistical reconstruction and microdata it shows that the retarded transition resulted from a confluence of forces These ranged from open economy effects and natural endowments to the resilient influence of the institutions of the former Dutch Republic and the fiscal policy adopted in response to Belgian secession At the height of the British Industrial Revolution the Dutch economy slowed triggering a return to the problems of eighteenth century stagnation All this meant that the transition to modern economic growth after 1860 came about only in a changed international context and after a period of politico economic reform
