Martin Johnson Heade was one of the most significant American painters of the nineteenth century creator of portraits history and genre pictures still lifes ornithological studies landscapes and marines and his own unique orchid and hummingbird compositions This book brings a perspective to Heade and his works presenting him as one of the most original and productive painters of his time Theodore Stebbins builds on his acclaimed 1975 study of Heade drawing on several newly discovered collections of Heade s letters and the painter s own Brazilian journal Stebbins tells of Heade s training and early career as an itinerant portraitist and discusses his move to New York where under the influence of Frederic E Church he began painting landscapes and seascapes He examines Heade s relationships with patrons and dealers writers and scientists and he sheds new light on Heade s trips to Brazil to the Central American tropics and to London And he describes Heade s move to Florida in 1883 which marked not his retirement but a final period of creativity that lasted until his death in 1904 The book includes not only an examination of Heade s life and works but also reproductions of all his 620 known paintings including nearly 250 that have been discovered since 1975

Mapping Impressionist Painting in Transnational Contexts

Emily C. Burns,Alice M. Rudy Price,2021-05-03 This book offers microhistories related to the transnational circulations of impressionism in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries The contributors rethink the role of French impressionism in shaping these iterations by placing France within its global and imperialist context and arguing that impressionisms might be framed through the mobility studies concept of constellations of mobility Artists engaging with impressionism in France as in other global contexts relied on responded to appropriated and resisted elements of form and content based on fluid and interconnected political realities and market structures Written by scholars and curators the chapters demand reconsideration of impressionism as a historical construct and the meanings assigned to that term This project frames future discussion in art history cultural studies and global studies on the politics of appropriating impressionism
