An Anthology of Irish Literature, Vol. 1 David Herbert GREENE, 1954 An Anthology of Irish Literature (Vol. 1) Richard Green, Daniel G. Calder, 1985-10 An Anthology of Irish Literature David Herbert Greene, 1985-10-01 Volume 1 contains translations of medieval Irish poetry and narratives many of which thought transcribed in Middle Irish are from an older oral tradition The volume also offers examples of Irish lyric poetry of the 17th and 18th centuries and translations from 19th century Irish poets A Companion to British Literature, Volume 1 Heesok Chang, Robert DeMaria, Jr., Samantha Zacher, 2013-12-13 A Companion to British Literature Medieval Literature 700 1450 The gothic novel in Ireland, c. 1760-1829 Christina Morin, 2018-05-11 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY NC ND open access license The gothic novel in Ireland c 1760 1829 offers a compelling account of the development of gothic literature in late eighteenth and early nineteenth century Ireland Countering traditional scholarly views of the rise of the gothic novel on the one hand and on the other Irish Romantic literature this study persuasively re integrates a body of now overlooked works into the history of the literary gothic as it emerged across Ireland Britain and Europe between 1760 and 1829 Its twinned quantitative and qualitative analysis of neglected Irish texts produces a new formal generic and ideological map of gothic literary production in this period persuasively positioning Irish works and authors at the centre of a new critical paradigm with which to understand both Irish Romantic and gothic literary production Cultural Politics at the Fin de Siècle Sally Ledger, Scott McCracken, 1995-02-02 Cultural Politics at the Fin de Siècle scrutinises ways in which current conflicts of race class and gender have their origins in the cultural politics of the last fin de siècle whose influence stretched from the 1890s when economic depression signalled the end of Britain's role as the workshop of the world to 1914 when world war accelerated imperial decline This collaborative venture by new and established scholars includes discussion of the New Woman the reconstruction of masculinities and of feminism and empire The imperialist theme is pursued in essays on Yeats and Ireland Gilbert and Sullivan and the figure of the vampire The rise of socialism and psychoanalysis and the relationship between nascent modernism and late twentieth century postmodernism are also addressed in this radical account P. S. O'Hegarty (1879-1955) Keiron Curtis, 2012-10 P S O'Hegarty 1879 1955 provides an informative and lively biography of the Irish nationalist P S O'Hegarty a major historical figure in the modern separatist movement At the same time the book explores important issues within nationalism and Irish history such as what is meant by nation and national identity cultural and political tolerance Republican Liberalism and the nature as well as the clash of religion and state

Anthologisation and Irish Short Fiction Paul Delaney, 2025-03-28 This original new study explores the recent flowering of short fiction in Ireland analysing the production dissemination and reception of the short form in the twenty first century and reading contemporary short stories in their many configurations and guises This volume covers twenty five years of Irish writing beginning in late 1997 with the establishment of the innovative literary periodical The Stinging Fly and concludes in 2022 The book is structured in five parts with each part focusing on a particular mode of publication periodicals single author volumes short story cycles edited anthologies and small or independent presses Each part includes a series of case studies while also engaging with a diverse range of short story criticism and theory both comparative and Irish centered Anthologisation and Irish Short Fiction brings different writers at distinct stages of their careers into conversation and This volume aims to illuminate the contemporaneous value of this body of work its innovative and varied use and the diversity of its practice Particular attention is also shown to the fluidity of the short form to its capacity to disrupt and arrest and to its progressive writerly potential Ireland's Great Famine and Popular Politics Enda Delaney, Breandán Mac

Suibhne, 2015-11-19 Ireland's Great Famine of 1845-52 was among the most devastating food crises in modern history A country of some eight and a half million people lost one million to hunger and disease and another million to emigration According to land activist Michael Davitt the starving made little or no effort to assert the animal's right to existence passively accepting their fate But the poor did resist In word and deed they defied landlords merchants and agents of the state they rioted for food opposed rent and rate collection challenged the decisions of those controlling relief works and scorned clergymen who attributed their suffering to the Almighty The essays collected here examine the full range of resistance in the Great Famine and illuminate how the crisis itself transformed popular politics Contributors include distinguished scholars of modern Ireland and emerging historians and critics This book is essential reading for students of modern Ireland and the global history of collective action Seamus Heaney and the Emblems of Hope Karen Marguerite Moloney, 2007 Explores Seamus Heaney's adaptation of the Celtic ritual known as the Feis of Tara demonstrates the sovereignty motif's continued relevance in works by Irish poets Thomas Kinsella John Montague Eavan Boland and Nuala Ni Dhomhnaill and refutes criticism that charges sexism and overemphasizes sacrifice in Heaney's poetry Provided by publisher
