An Inkwell Of Pen Names:

An Inkwell of Pen Names Stephen Smith,2006-11-20 An Inkwell of Pen Names tells the stories of 100 authors pen names in a hundred short chapters Many other authors who used pen names are discussed incidentally Features of the compendium include pen names beginning with every letter of the alphabet authors from twenty five countries the recipients of the Nobel Prize for literature who used pseudonyms and a balanced selection of men and women authors Star Struck Sam Riley,2009-12-09 This balanced examination looks at America s pervasive celebrity culture concentrating on the period from 1950 to the present day Star Struck An Encyclopedia of Celebrity Culture is neither a stern critic nor an apologist for celebrity infatuation a phenomenon that sometimes supplants more weighty matters yet constitutes one of our nation s biggest exports This encyclopedia covers American celebrity culture from 1950 to 2008 examining its various aspects and its impact through 86 entries by 30 expert contributors Demonstrating that all celebrities are famous but not all famous people are celebrities the book cuts across the various entertainment medias and their legions of individual stars It looks at sports celebrities and examines the role of celebrity in more serious pursuits and institutions such as the news media corporations politics the arts medicine and the law Also included are entries devoted to such topics as paranoia and celebrity one name celebrities celebrity nicknames family unit celebrity sidekick celebrities and even criminal celebrities A Cross-Cultural History of Britain and Belgium, 1815-1918 Marysa Demoor,2022-03-21 This book highlights the ways in which Britain and Belgium became culturally entangled as a result of their interaction in the period between the Napoleonic Wars and the First World War In the course of the nineteenth century the battlefields of Waterloo and Ypres in Belgium became veritable burial grounds for generations of dead British military indirectly leading to the most intensive ties between the two countries By exploring this twofold path the author uncovers a series of cross influences and creative similarities within the Belgo British artistic community and explores the background against which the British national identity was constructed Revealing unknown links between some of the most famous artists on both sides of the channel such as D G Rossetti and Jan Van Eyck Christina Rossetti and Fernand Khnopff John Millais and Pieter Breughel and Lewis Carroll and Quentin Massys the book emphasises an artistic cross fertilisation that can be found within battlefield literature throughout the nineteenth century including examples from the likes of William M Thackeray Frances Trollope and Charlotte Bront Providing a rich intercultural history of Belgo British relations after the battle of Waterloo this interdisciplinary book will appeal to scholars and students researching history literature art and cultural studies Belles and Poets Julia Nitz,2020-11-04 In Belles and Poets Julia Nitz analyzes the Civil War diary writing of eight white women from the U S South focusing specifically on how they made sense of the world around them through references to literary texts Nitz finds that many diarists incorporated allusions to poems plays and novels especially works by Shakespeare and the British Romantic poets in moments of uncertainty and crisis While previous studies have overlooked or neglected such literary allusions in personal writings regarding them as mere embellishments or signs of elite social status Nitz reveals that these references functioned as codes through which women diarists contemplated their roles in society and addressed topics related to slavery Confederate politics gender and personal identity Nitz s innovative study of identity construction and literary intertextuality focuses on diaries written by the following women Eliza Frances Fanny Andrews of Georgia 1840 1931 Mary Boykin Miller Chesnut of South Carolina 1823 1886 Malvina Sara Black Gist of South Carolina 1842 1930 Sarah Ida Fowler Morgan of Louisiana 1842 1909 Cornelia Peake McDonald of Virginia 1822 1909 Judith White Brockenbrough McGuire of Virginia 1813 1897 Sarah Katherine Kate Stone of Louisiana 1841 1907 and Ella Gertrude Clanton Thomas of Georgia 1843 1907 These women s diaries circulated in postwar commemoration associations and several saw publication The public acclaim they received helped shape the collective memory of the war and according to Nitz further legitimized notions of racial supremacy and segregation Comparing and contrasting their own lives to literary precedents and fictional role models allowed the diarists to process the privations of war the loss of family members and the looming defeat of the Confederacy Belles and Poets establishes the extent to which literature offered a means of exploring ideas and convictions about class gender and racial hierarchies in the Civil War era South Nitz s work shows that literary allusions in wartime diaries expose the ways in which some white southern women coped with the war and its potential threats to their way of life
