Gale,2021-02-16 While best known as one of the most important playwrights of the twentieth century Harold Pinter 1930 2008 had an equally successful career writing screenplays His collaborations with director Joseph Losey garnered great attention and esteem and two of his screenplays earned Academy Award nominations The French Lieutenant s Woman 1981 and Betrayal 1983 He is also credited for writing an unproduced script to remake Stanley Kubrick s 1962 adaptation of Lolita Much scholarship has been dedicated to the subject of Pinter as playwright but the rich landscape of his work in film has been left largely undisturbed In Sharp Cut Harold Pinter s Screenplays and the

Artistic Process Steven H Gale the world's foremost Pinter scholar analyzes Pinter's creative process from initial conception to finished film Gale makes careful point by point comparisons of each stage in the screenplay's creation the source material the adaptations themselves and the films made from the scripts in order to reveal the meaning behind each film script and to explain the cinematic techniques used to express that meaning Unlike most Pinter scholars who focus almost solely on the written word Gale devotes discussion to the cinematic interpretation of the scripts through camera angles and movement cutting and other techniques Pinter does not merely convert his stage scripts to screenplays he adapts the works to succeed in the other medium avoiding elements of the live play that do not work onscreen and using the camera's focusing operations in ways that are not possible on the stage As Pinter's career progressed and his writing evolved screenplays became for him an increasingly vital means of creative expression Sharp Cut is the first study to fully explore this important component of the Pinter canon

Hollywood's Chosen People Daniel Bernardi, 2012-09-17 As studio bosses directors and actors Jews have been heavily involved in film history and vitally involved in all aspects of film production Yet Jewish characters have been represented onscreen in stereotypical and disturbing ways while Jews have also helped to produce some of the most troubling stereotypes of people of color in Hollywood film history In Hollywood's Chosen People: The Jewish Experience in American Cinema leading scholars consider the complex relationship between Jews and the film industry as Jews have helped to construct Hollywood's vision of the American dream and American collective identity and have in turn been shaped by those representations Editors Daniel Bernardi Murray Pomerance and Hava Tirosh Samuelson introduce the volume with an overview of the history of Jews in American popular culture and the American film industry Multidisciplinary contributors go on to discuss topics such as early Jewish films and directors institutionalized anti-Semitism Jewish identity and gossip culture and issues of Jewish performance on film Contributors draw on a diverse sampling of films from representations of the Holocaust on film to screen comedy filmmakers and writers including David Mamet George Cukor Sidney Lumet Edward Sloman and Steven Spielberg and stars like Barbra Streisand Adam Sandler and Ben Stiller The Jewish experience in American cinema reveals much about the degree to which Jews have been integrated into and contribute to the making of American popular film culture Scholars of Jewish studies film studies American history and American culture as well as anyone interested in film history will find this volume fascinating reading
