An Anthology Regarding Merit Goods An Anthology Regarding Merit Goods:

An Anthology Regarding Merit Goods Wilfried Ver Eecke, 2007 Merit Goods are those goods and services that the government feels that people will under consume and which therefore ought to be subsidized or provided free at the point of use The consumption of merit goods is thought to generate positive externality effects where the social benefit from consumption exceeds the private benefit Examples of merit goods are health services education public libraries and inoculations against certain diseases Van Eecke has assembled a collection of articles and papers that covers the issue of merit goods from a variety of perspectives and has provided a single source for researchers and economist interested in the issue The work begins with a thorough look at Musgrave's notion of merit goods The subsequent sections expand the definition of merit goods and provide information on the application of merit goods theory in economic philosophical social and religious terms The reference also has an extensive bibliography

Handbook of Media and Communication Economics Jan Krone, Tassilo Pellegrini, 2024-10-28 This handbook maps the media economy in its entirety against the background of the advancing digitalization of communication media production media distribution and the adaptation of regulatory framework conditions from different disciplinary approaches It provides an integrated view on digitally induced economic transformations of the European media sector and gives an explicitly European perspective on media economics challenging the dominant US American view Topics covered include but are not limited to Theoretical approaches to media economics media technologies and data management in media economics building blocks of the media industry media types and core distribution markets system aspects and communication culture media systems and regulatory policy as well as methods of media economics The handbook is a must read for students teachers and researchers in media and communication economics and science as well as practitioners and policy makers at the nexus of media business and politics

Ethical Reflections on the Financial Crisis 2007/2008 Wilfried Ver Eecke, 2013-01-05 In this book the author reflects on the philosophical and ethical bases of the financial crisis 2007/08 and the subsequent recession He finds in Adam Smith solid arguments for the new free market economy capitalism but also arguments for a role for the government in the case of public goods roads and of merit goods education control of banking Where the provision of public goods requires that the government respect consumer sovereignty there the provision of merit goods legitimizes the violation of that principle By making use of the history of economic thought e.g. the neo liberal tradition the author demonstrates that Musgrave's idea of merit goods can be expanded to eleven domains in which the government has an important function He legitimizes that move by using the Kantian argument that we must accept the possibility conditions for what we want The author demonstrates that Rajan Reich and Reinhart Rogoff make use of seven of his eleven categories of merit goods in order to explain the financial crisis 2007/08 and the subsequent recession The author thereby provides a philosophical and ethical analysis of the government's failures at the basis of the financial crisis

Media Localism Christopher Ali, 2017-02-03 We live in a boosterish era that exhorts us to play local and buy local But what does it mean to support local media How should we define local media in the first place Christopher Ali delves into our ideas about localism and their far reaching repercussions for the discourse of federal media policy and regulation His critique focuses on the new interest in localism among regulators in the United States the United Kingdom and Canada As he shows the many different and often contradictory meanings of localism complicate efforts to study local voices At the same time market factors and regulators unwillingness to critically examine local media blunt challenges to the status quo Ali argues that reconciling the places where we live with the spaces we inhabit will point regulators toward effective policies that strengthens local media That new approach will again elevate local media to its rightful place as a vital part of the public good Transferable Groundwater Rights Andreas N.

Charalambous,2013-10-28 The principle of transferable groundwater rights is that by making water rights capable of being traded in the market water resources can be used more sustainably and efficiently Groundwater would achieve its economic value by switching from the high volume low value irrigation which is prevalent with many farmers particularly in South Asia to low volume high value urban supply or the growing of intensive horticultural or cash crops This book discusses transferable groundwater rights in their broader context It starts with a detailed description of the physical aspects of groundwater which non technical readers should find useful followed by a discussion of legal and economic aspects Water transfers and the international experiences in transferable groundwater rights are dealt with in detail in two subsequent chapters A model is presented to guide those involved in water resources management and planning in their decision process to introduce transferable groundwater rights and water rights trading The author concludes that transferable groundwater rights potentially offer a better alternative to land based water rights systems However he casts serious doubt on whether groundwater rights trading on its own can achieve water resources sustainability environmental protection and social equity Government intervention seems to be almost always needed to assist the water rights market and take responsibility for any of its adverse consequences Ethical Dimensions of the Economy Wilfried Ver Eecke,2008-03-19 Overview This book is a philosophical reflection using mainly Hegel in addition to 1 Adam Smith Kant Marx and Catholic Social Thought about the socio political dimension of economics In it I both agree and disagree with the slogan that the least government is the best government I agree with the slogan in particular as it applies to the economic domain Adam Smith taught us that rational and self interested individuals left by themselves create a more efficient and reliable economic system than one in which the government has a heavy role as was the case in his time with the mercantile system Smith 14 651 Ludwig von Mises demonstrated the same idea for the communist command economy Hayek 1935 87 130 I do agree with the above mentioned slogan if it is interpreted as suggesting that we can best forget about the role of the government for a good functioning economy Instead I will argue that the government has an important function in creating the proper regulations and the wise institutional arrangements which will allow the economy to flourish in a more efficient fair and humane way This book is interdisciplinary in nature It is a philosophical and ethical reflection on economics Hence I make use of philosophical ideas often but not exclusively those of Hegel I reflect philosophically on economic concepts Understanding Teaching and Learning

T. Brian Mooney,2011-12-07 Generous selections from these four seminal texts on the theory and practice of education have never before appeared together in a single volume The Introductions that precede the texts provide brief biographical sketches of each author situating him within his broader historical cultural and intellectual context The editors also provide a brief outline of key themes that emerge within the selection as a helpful guide to the reader The final chapter engages the reflections of the classic authors with contemporary issues and challenges in the philosophy and practice of education Universal Service in WTO and EU law

Olga Batura,2015-10-07 This book is a systematic comparative study of WTO and EU law relevant for universal service provision and a timely contribution to the ongoing scholarly and policy debates about the concept and scope of universal service Universal service is one of the most significant regulatory issues worldwide and it is likely to remain so The central question dealt with by the author is how the technologically intensive sector of telecommunications services can be regulated in a socially fair way in the light of liberalisation and the immense importance of ICTs in the Information Society The author investigates whether the legal frameworks of WTO and EU can meet the challenges of the rapid and dramatic technological and social change and formulates relevant policy recommendations The book is of interest to both scholars and practitioners in several disciplines such as EU and WTO law telecommunications law and regulation political science regarding market regulation and governance as well as European integration and WTO Olga Batura is affiliated to the Leuphana Law School University of L neburg Germany and to the European Humanities University in Vilnius Lithuania Encyclopedia of Philosophy and the Social Sciences

Byron Kaldis,2013-03-07 This encyclopedia magnificently edited by Byron Kaldis will become a valuable source both of reference and inspiration for all those who are interested in the interrelation between philosophy and the many facets of the social sciences A must read for every student of the humanities Wulf Gaertner University of Osnabrueck Germany Like all good works of reference this Encyclopedia of Philosophy and the Social Sciences is not to be treated passively it provides clear and sometimes controversial material for constructive confrontation It is a rich resource for critical engagement The Encyclopedia conceived and edited by Byron Kaldis is a work of impressive scope and I am delighted to have it on my bookshelf David Bloor Edinburgh University This splendid and possibly unique work steers a skilful course between narrower conceptions of philosophy and the social sciences It will be an invaluable resource for students and researchers in either or both fields and to anyone working on the interrelations between them William Outhwaite Newcastle University The Encyclopedia of Philosophy and the Social Sciences is the first of its kind in bringing the subjects of philosophy and the social sciences together It is not only about the philosophy of the social sciences but going beyond that it is also about the relationship between philosophy and the social sciences The subject of the Encyclopedia is purposefully multi and inter disciplinary Knowledge boundaries are both delineated and crossed over The goal is to convey a clear sense of how philosophy looks at the social sciences and to mark out a detailed picture of how the two are interrelated interwoven at certain times but also differentiated and contrasted at others The Entries cover topics of central significance but also those that are both controversial and on the cutting edge underlining the unique mark of this Encyclopedia the interrelationship between philosophy and the social sciences especially as it is found in fresh ideas and unprecedented hybrid disciplinary areas The Encyclopedia serves a further dual purpose it contributes to the renewal of the philosophy of the social sciences and helps to promote novel modes of thinking about some of its classic problems

The Goals of Competition Law Daniel Zimmer, 2012 What are the normative foundations of competition law That is the question at the heart of this book Leading scholars consider whether this branch of law serves just one or more than one goal and if it serves to protect unfettered competition as such how this goal relates to other objectives such as the promotion of economic welfare The book brings together contributions on the relevance of different welfare standards on the concept of freedom to compete and on distributional fairness as a goal of competition law Moreover it discusses the relationship to other legal goals such as mar
