Asian Islam in the 21st Century John L. Esposito, John Voll, Osman Bakar, 2008 Asian Islam in the 21st century is divided into two sections religion politics and society in major Muslim majority countries and ethnic and religious politics in Muslim minority communities Muslims in Asia are affected by what is happening in the Arab Middle East and the Western part of the Islamic world

A New Introduction to Islam Daniel W. Brown, 2017-04-24 Covering the origins key features and legacy of the Islamic tradition the third edition of A New Introduction to Islam includes new material on Islam in the 21st century and discussions of the impact of historical ideas literature and movements on contemporary trends Includes updated and rewritten chapters on the Qur'an and hadith literature that covers important new academic research Compares the practice of Islam in different Islamic countries as well as acknowledging the differences within Islam as practiced in Europe Features study questions for each chapter and more illustrative material charts and excerpts from primary sources

The Muslim World in the 21st Century Samiul Hasan, 2012-01-15 Islam is not only a religion but also a culture tradition and civilization There are currently 1.5 billion people in the world who identify themselves as Muslim Two thirds of the worldwide Muslim population i.e. approximately a billion people live in forty eight Muslim majority countries MMC in the world all of which except one are in Africa and Asia Of these MMCs in Africa and Asia only twelve inhabited by about 165 million people have ever achieved a high score on the Human Development Index HDI the index that measures life expectancy at birth education and standard of living and ranks how developed a country is This means that the majority of the world s Muslim population lives in poverty with low or medium level of human development The contributions to this innovative volume attempt to determine why this is They explore the influence of environment space and power on human development The result is a complex interdisciplinary study of all MMCs in Africa and Asia It offers new insights into the current state of the Muslim World and provides a theoretical framework for studying human development from an interdisciplinary social cultural economic environmental political and religious perspective which will be applicable to regional and cultural studies of space and power in other regions of the world Islam and Democracy in the 21st Century Tauseef Ahmad Parray,2023-09-15

This book starts with the prevailing idea of a conflicting relationship between Islam and the Western concept of democracy both in theory and in practice With this backdrop the author addresses the crucial question Is Islam compatible with democracy The book offers very useful discussions in framing the contemporary debates surrounding Islam and democracy treads through diverse theoretical Islamic texts like the Quran and Sunnah discusses the historical evolution of the concept of Shura the primary source of democratic ethics in Islam provides an assessment of the views and visions of some selected Muslim scholars from 19th to 21st centuries on Islam democracy compatibility and examines the elements of compatibility between Islam and democracy without ignoring the basic differences that exist between the Western approach to democracy and Islamic political thought Understanding Islam Imran Mogra,2020-03-10

Misconceptions and misunderstandings about Islam and fear of causing offence can be barriers to being an effective teacher in a diverse school This book aims to give non Muslim teachers the confidence to engage meaningfully with important facets of Muslim pupils lives leading to a richer and more rewarding experience in the classroom Aspects of Islam explored include the foundations and obligations of faith ethical dimensions placed upon Muslims the importance of education in Muslim communities and contemporary issues faced by communities in the UK To deepen your understanding each chapter is enriched by case studies linked to the classroom expert voices that offer authenticity and reflective tasks that encourage you to consider key concepts in greater depth This is essential reading for new and experienced teachers in primary and secondary schools wishing to deepen their knowledge of Islam Law and Religion in the 21st Century Rinaldo Cristofori,Silvio Ferrari,2016-04-15

This book brings together leading international scholars of law and religion to provide an overview of current issues in State religion relations The first part of the collection offers a picture of recent developments in key countries and regions The second part is focused on Europe and in particular on the Nordic States and the post communist countries where State religion systems have undergone most profound change The third and final part is devoted to four issues that are currently debated all over the world the relations between freedom of expression and freedom of religion proselytism and the right to change religion the religious symbols and the legal status of Islam in Europe and Canada The work will be a valuable resource for academics students and policy makers with an interest in the interaction between law and religion An Introduction to Middle East Politics Benjamin MacQueen, 2017-12-04 This new edition of An Introduction to Middle East Politics continues to provide an expansive survey of Middle East politics thoroughly revised and restructured in response to events currently taking place Written in a lively and accessible manner MacQueen takes students on a tour of the region's modern political history up to the present clearly signposting key events and issues Providing comprehensive coverage of all key themes in Middle East politics this book covers Historical Legacies The Ottoman Empire WWI colonialism and the Cold War nationalism and Islamist politics Authoritarianism in Egypt Algeria and Syria political changes in Iran the politics of oil in Saudi Arabia and the Gulf States Israel the Palestinians and the Arab States The Syrian conflict including regional ramifications and particular focus on the Syrian refugee crisis Each chapter includes a timeline learning objectives study questions and annotated further reading and the book finishes with a glossary Contemporary and fascinating with dedicated material on culture gender ethnicity and minorities this book is a crucial companion for students of Middle East politics Democratisation in the 21st Century Mohammad-Mahmoud Ould Mohamedou, Timothy D. Sisk, 2016-10-04 The 2010s was a critical period in the continuing established trend of the spread of democracy worldwide from the Arab Spring countries of Tunisia Libya Egypt and Yemen to the unfolding turmoil of Myanmar and Ukraine by way of the upheavals in Burkina Faso Senegal and Ivory Coast social mobilisation against autocratic corrupt or military regimes has precipitated political transitions that are characteristic of democratisation This book examines the state of democratisation theory and practice that reopens and revives the democratic transition debate exploring the factors that lead to the demise of autocracy the pathways and processes of change and the choice for an eventual consolidation of democracy For all its insights and shortcomings the framework of transitology a body of literature that has comparatively and through case study analysis examined common patterns sequences crises and outcomes of transitional periods has been largely eschewed The essays written by international democratisation specialists tackle the series of questions raised by a body of literature that remains highly useful to understand contemporary political turbulence and transformation considering numerous crucial issues This work will be of key interest to scholars students and practitioners of governance democratisation comparative politics international relations political science and more broadly history
