Rhetoric and Sociolinguistics in Times of Global Crisis Hancı-Azizoglu, Eda Başak,Alawdat, Maha,2021-04-02 Crises often leave people in vulnerable situations in which a moment in time can function as a turning point of a catastrophic situation for the better or worse From another perspective the concept of crisis signifies losing control of everyday privileges such as that of a pandemic Therefore the interaction of rhetoric and sociolinguistics in times of crisis is inevitable It is crucial to internalize how rhetoric an effective skill from ancient times to make meaning of sociological breakthrough events changed the course of events as well as the fate of humanity Within the same context research should focus on diverse disciplines to explore investigate and analyze the concept of crisis from global sociolinguistic and rhetorical perspectives Rhetoric and Sociolinguistics in Times of Global Crisis explores and situates the concept of global crisis within rhetoric and sociolinguistics as well as other disciplines such as education technology society language and politics The chapters included bridge the gap to initiate a discussion on understanding how rhetoric and sociolinguistics can create critical awareness for individuals societies and learning environments during times of crisis While highlighting concepts such as rhetorical evolution political rhetoric digital writing and communications this book is a valuable reference tool for language teachers writing experts communications specialists politicians and government officials academicians researchers and students working and studying in fields that include rhetoric education linguistics culture media political science and communications “Nomadity of Being” in Central Asia Syinat Sultanalieva,2023-01-01 This book offers a new framework for understanding feminism and political activism in Kyrgyzstan nomadity of being Here foreign information and requirements even forced ones are transformed into an amalgamation of the new and the old alien and native like kurak a quilted patchwork blanket made from scraps Conceptualizing feminist narratives in Kyrgyzstan while keeping in mind the complex relationship between ideological borrowing actualization appropriation or self colonization of feminist concepts can expand both scholarly and activist understanding of specificities of post Soviet feminisms from a historiographic point of view Kurak feminism is feminism that is half donor commissioned half learned through interactions personal media academic professional unashamed of its borrowed nature and working toward its own purpose that is being developed as the blanket is being quilted Weaving in elements from completely different and to a Western eye incompatible approaches nomadity of being might pave the way toward a Central Asian reframing of non Western feminisms This provocative text will interest scholars of European politics the post Soviet sphere and feminists The Persistence of Racialization Luz Angélica Kirschner,2024-10-18 The Persistence of Racialization Literature Gender and Ethnicity represents an attempt at unpacking the legacy of modern ideas of race initiated and established during the conquest of the Americas and their current relevance for literary criticism of ethnic writing also known as minority writing The book challenges ideas of a post racial globalized world to question the tendency to devalue ethnic literary writing in general and ethnic women s productions in particular by questioning reductive literary criticism of ethnic writing that perpetuates bias against ethnic writing and its authors By advocating for a decolonial literary imagination the book urges literary critics of ethnic writing to consider the complexities of modern race and its enduring impact on contemporary social and cultural narratives Updated literary analyses of Jewish Argentine Turkish German and Chinese American women writers encourage literary critics of ethnic writing to explore alternative transnational frameworks that prioritize equity diversity and social justice Difficult Dialogues about Twenty-First-Century Girls Donna Marie Johnson,Alice E. Ginsberg,2015-10-09 Introduces new conceptual frameworks for girls studies Presenting cutting edge research from transnational scholars and activists Difficult Dialogues about Twenty First Century Girls introduces original methodologies and girl centered program design to the field of girls studies The editors pair progressive girls studies research on topics such as differential privilege voice cultural values and access to material resources with provocative questions in order to further the thinking about issues that are often marginalized or overlooked in feminist domains In addition the book serves as a manual for educators and activists designed to promote critical discussions that are accessible and includes a final dialogue with contemporary scholars about their work and the current direction of the field
