

The book cover features a stylized illustration of Santorini, Greece. In the upper half, a volcano (Mount Santorini) is shown erupting with a large plume of red and orange smoke. The lower half depicts a coastal town with several buildings, including a prominent domed structure. The entire scene is overlaid with a faint, golden grid pattern, reminiscent of an old map or a technical drawing. The title and author's name are prominently displayed in the center. The background has a warm, yellowish-orange hue.
