Scott Foresman Reading, 2000 A Study Guide for James Weldon Johnson's "The Autobiography of an Ex-Coloured Man" Gale, Cengage Learning, 2016-06-29 A Study Guide for James Weldon Johnson's The Autobiography of an Ex-Coloured Man excerpted from Gale's acclaimed Novels for Students. This concise study guide includes plot summary, character analysis, author biography, study questions, historical context, suggestions for further reading, and much more. For any literature project, trust Novels for Students for all of your research needs. The Developing Person Through the Life Span Study Guide Richard O. Straub, 2004-04-30 This study guide is designed for use with The Developing Person Through the Life Span, Sixth Edition by Katleen Stassen Berger. It is intended to help students evaluate their understanding of that material and to review any problem areas. Sections such as How to Manage Your Time Efficiently, Study more effectively, and Thinking Critically provide detailed instructions on how to use the textbook. Each chapter includes a Chapter Overview, a set of Guided Study questions, a Chapter Review section, and three review tests. Preface. Making Sense Juli Kendall, Outey Khuon, 2005 Reading is all about understanding. Many English language learners simply do not understand what they are reading, whether it's a picture book, a literature selection, or a science textbook. Juli Kendall and Outey Khuon believe that small group comprehension lessons have a key role to play in advancing students' understanding of texts. Making Sense provides answers to many common questions asked by teachers of English language learners: How do we organize small group comprehension instruction? How do we select books to teach strategies? How do we know our kids are getting it, and what do we do when they don't get it? It is an easy-to-use practical resource for ELD, ESL, and ESOL pull-out teachers and for push-in teachers working in class to support English language learners. The book's five main sections are geared to the stages of language proficiency, and lessons are divided into younger and older students, spanning kindergarten through grade 8. The authors outline fifty-two lessons that teach students how to make connections, ask questions, visualize, make mental images, infer, determine importance, and synthesize. Each lesson follows a four-part teaching framework: Start Up (Connection), helping students build background and use prior knowledge to connect to the lesson; Give Information (explicitly telling students what they are going to learn and why they are learning it); and then teaching them. Active Involvement often occurs during the teaching as students practice what they are learning while the teacher checks for understanding and monitors and adjusts instruction. Off You Go (opportunities for students to practice what they learned with peers or independently). Making Sense also explores the stages of language proficiency through descriptions of ten English language learners of different ages. A chart of student characteristics for each stage shows how students demonstrate understanding and outlines the implications for planning instruction. This book will appeal to experienced teachers seeking to expand their repertoire of lessons as well as new teachers just beginning the adventure of teaching comprehension to English language learners. Writing Sense Juli Kendall, Outey Khuon, 2023-10-10 Writing is all about making meaning. The prospect of teaching writing to a classroom full of students some who speak English and some who don't can be overwhelming. When students learning English are at different levels the task is even more challenging. Writing Sense Integrated Reading and Writing Lessons for English Language Learners outlines the classroom conditions necessary for successful writing instruction with English language learners whether in writing workshop and or small group instruction. It includes 68 classroom tested lessons for grades K-8 that show kids at all levels of language acquisition how to make connections, ask questions, visualize, make mental images, infer, determine importance, synthesize, monitor meaning and comprehension and use fix-up strategies. The five main sections are geared to the stages of language proficiency and lessons are divided into younger and older students spanning kindergarten through to grade eight. There are extensive lists of suggested books for mentor texts as well as lists of mentor authors to facilitate teachers planning and instruction.

The Study Guide for Developing Person Through Childhood and Adolescence Richard O. Straub, 2008-12-18. Each chapter includes a review of key concepts, guided study questions and section reviews that encourage students active participation in the learning process, two practice tests and a challenge test help them assess their mastery of the material. Applications and observational activities are also included.

The Complete Year in Reading and Writing Patty Vitale-Reilly, Pam Allyn, 2008. Grade specific books that take all the guesswork out of teaching reading and writing. Each book provides a detailed curricular calendar tied to a developmental continuum and the standards. Includes monthly units of study that integrate reading and writing so both work together to provide maximum support for students. The units are organized around four essential components: process, genre, strategy and conventions, addressing everything students need to know about reading and writing. Packed with ready to use lessons that offer exemplary teaching and continuous assessment. Features a flexible framework that shows how to frame a year of teaching a unit and a lesson all easily adapted to fit the unique needs and interests of students at all levels of learning.
