

Brave New World Journals

Write often. You will have journal prompts to complete before and after reading each chapter of the book. The pre-reading prompts are intended to get you thinking about important themes that will be repeated throughout the chapter. The post-reading journals are to help you reflect upon what you read, and make meaningful connections to material outside of Brave New World.

Some chapters provide multiple prompts. Choose at least one of the options provided, but do not feel obligated to answer all of the prompts for every chapter.

Get outside!

Disconnected with nature is one of the common elements of the dystopian genre. What better way to become personally invested in the genre than to create actual habits that combat the disconnect from nature? The beauty of a book and a journal is that you can take them anywhere. Books are best read in a fresh air and sunshine. Park a bench and read outside, climb a tree, or sit by a stream as you complete your daily reading and journals. Let a few drops of rain fall on the pages, let ferns turn messages of dirt into messages of mud. Find a leaf or flower to keep pressed in the pages, use a stick or a feather as a bookmark. Can you read outside every day? Can you combat the disconnect from nature that is represented in the dystopian genre?

Place a check in each row to see if a chapter that you read outside.

Wrestling With the Angel: A Memoir of My Triumph Over Illness Max Lerner, 1991-08-15 Journalist Max Lerner writes a stunningly honest account of the feelings and thoughts that marked his battle with two successive cancers and a heart attack Journal entries from this extraordinary ordeal show how mind and body interweave in the healing process A worthy companion to Anatomy of an Illness Kirkus Reviews

Imagining Worlds Marjorie Ford, Jon Ford, 1995 This text presents a perspective on the role that literature plays in our lives shaping our feelings thoughts and cultures It encourages a variety of personal and analytic responses to literature and literary non fiction with its thematic focus and its wide range of genres cultures disciplines and assignments Two introductory chapters on reading journal writing and writing as processes of discovery are followed by chapters on the four genres of literature that fully explain and illustrate the process of writing about literature within the context of student casebooks Six thematic chapters provide a collection of readings and engaging writing topics

Degrees of Freedom Bethany Hicok, 2008 In this original contribution to the history of American poetry in the 20th century Bethany Hicok traces the influence of the women s college on the poetic development of three American poets Marianne Moore at Bryn Mawr Elizabeth Bishop at Vassar and Sylvia Plath at Smith

The Nationality of Utopia Maxim Shadurski, 2019-08-14

Since its generic inception in 1516 utopia has produced visions of alterity which renegotiate subvert and transcend existing places Early in the twentieth century H G Wells linked utopia to the World State whose post national post Westphalian emergence he predicated on English national discourse This critical study examines how the discursive representations of England s geography continuity and character become foundational to the Wellsian utopia and elicit competing response from Wells s contemporaries particularly Robert Hugh Benson and Aldous Huxley with further ramifications throughout the twentieth century Contextualized alongside modern theories of nationalism and utopia as well as read jointly with contemporary projections of England as place reactions to Wells demonstrate a shift from disavowal to retrieval of England on the one hand and from endorsement to rejection of the World State on the other Attempts to salvage the residual traces of English culture from their degradation in the World State have taken increasing precedence over the imagination of a post national order This trend continues in the work of George Orwell Anthony Burgess J G Ballard and Julian Barnes whose future scenarios warn against a world without England The Nationality of Utopia investigates utopia s capacity to deconstruct and redeploy national discourse in ways that surpass fear and nostalgia

Shiptown Ann Grodzins Gold,2017-04-27 Jahazpur is a small market town or qasba with a diverse population of more than 20 000 people located in Bhilwara District in the North Indian state of Rajasthan With roots deep in history and legend Shiptown a literal translation of landlocked Jahazpur s name today is a subdistrict headquarters and thus a regional hub for government services unavailable in villages Rural and town lives have long intersected in Shiptown s market streets which are crammed with shopping opportunities many designed to allure village customers Temples mosques and shrines attract Hindus and Muslims from nearby areas In the town s densely settled center still partially walled with arched gateways intact many neighborhoods remain segregated by hereditary birth group By contrast in some newer more spacious residential areas outside the walls persons of distinct communities and religions live as neighbors Throughout Jahazpur municipality a peaceful pluralism normally prevails Ann Grodzins Gold lived in Santosh Nagar the oldest of Shiptown s new settlements for ten months recording interviews and participating in festival ritual and social events public and private religious and secular While engaged with contemporary scholarship Shiptown is moored in the everyday lives of the town s residents and each chapter has at its center a specific node of Jahazpur experience Gold seeks to portray how neighborly relations are forged and endure across lines of difference how ancient hierarchical social structures shift in major ways while never exactly disappearing how in spite of pervasive conservative family values gender roles are transforming rapidly and radically how environmental deterioration affects not only public health but individual hearts inspiring activism and how commerce and morality keep uneasy company She sustains a conviction that even in the globalized present local experiences are significant and that anthropology that most intimate and poetic of the social sciences continues to foster productive conversations among human beings

The Top Books of the Year Brave New World Journal Entries The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous engrossing novels enthralling the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the captivating narratives that have charmed audiences this year. Brave New World Journal Entries : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Brave New World Journal Entries : Taylor Jenkins Reid's "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reid's compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens' "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and suspenseful novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
