Roots of Counterterrorism Affiliated Researcher at the Institute of Security and Global Affairs Faculty of Governance and Global Affairs Constant Willem Hijzen, Constant Willem Hijzen, 2024-11-05 Following the 9 11 terrorist attacks much of the counterterrorism literature has focused on costly and ineffective approaches losing sight of productive strategies from eras past Roots of Counterterrorism revives the narratives from the Dutch domestic security service Binnenlandse Veiligheidsdienst BVD from 1968 78 a period of turbulence that lasted until the Dutch regained political stability Using newly declassified primary sources Constant Willem Hijzen shows that a goal of large scale prevention was not as effective as focusing on suspected perpetrators of attacks The book introduces a new way of analyzing the dynamics of counterterrorism shedding light on contemporary wisdom from Dutch intelligence history Recueil Des Cours, Collected Courses 1977 Tuğrul Ansay, 1980-04-02 The Academy is a prestigious international institution for the study and teaching of Public and Private International Law and related subjects The work of the Hague Academy receives the support and recognition of the UN Its purpose is to encourage a thorough and impartial examination of the problems arising from international relations in the field of law The courses deal with the theoretical and practical aspects of the subject including legislation and case law All courses at the Academy are in principle published in the language in which they were delivered in the Collected Courses of the Hague Academy of International Law Subject Catalog, 1977 Library of Congress, 1977 Report of the Countryside Commission for the Year Ended ... Great Britain. Countryside Commission, 1980 Jehovah's Witnesses in Central Africa Tony Hodges, 1984 Jehovah's Witnesses the members of an American based millenarian religious sect known as the Watch Tower Bible and Tract Society WTBS have been harassed and persecuted by governments the world over In Nazi Germany they were rounded up and sent to concentration camps The Society was banned in Australia and Canada during the Second World War because of its pacifist teachings Now the Jehovah's Witnesses are being hounded in Africa where some 250 000 of the world's two million Witnesses live In white ruled South Africa the WTBS has frequently incurred the displeasure of government authorities Jehovah's Witnesses refuse to join the South African armed forces even in non combatant service and face terms in prison for disobeying the draft African Watch Tower children have been expelled from school for their refusal to sing the South African national anthem and in white schools students face expulsion for refusing to join the compulsory Youth Preparedness Programme salute the South African flag and sing the national anthem The Witnesses refusal on religious grounds to participate in politics or to honour national symbols like flags and anthems has also prompted numerous black run governments to clamp down on the sect The movement is banned in Ethiopia and Tanzania In Zaire where the sect was illegal under Belgian rule it was held responsible by Moïse Tshombe for the 1961 Luba rebellion and was proscribed in 1966 Please note that the terminology in the fields of minority rights and indigenous peoples rights has changed over time MRG strives to reflect these changes as well as respect the right to self identification on the part of minorities and indigenous peoples At the same time after over 50 years work we know that our archive is of considerable interest to activists and researchers Therefore we make available as much of our back catalogue as possible while being aware that the language used may not reflect current thinking on these issues The Company That Changed Itself Arjan van Rooij,2007-10-01 This thoroughly researched book analyses the role of industrial research in DSM s transformations

Library of Congress Catalogs Library of Congress,1979 Herman Johannes Lam (1892-1977), the Life and Work of a Dutch Botanist M. Jacobs,2024-09-16 Agency in Private International Law H.L.E. Verhagen,2023-07-03 The Hague Agency Convention is of great importance for every lawyer involved or interested in international business and finance Its provisions become relevant whenever one is dealing with agency relationships in the broadest sense in an international context Its scope is not confined to the traditional commercial agency relationships between principals and their agents but extends to many other situations where agency takes place both directly and indirectly The rules of the Convention are applied to find the laws governing both the internal and external agency relationships in all areas of international business and finance The Convention has currently been ratified by four states the Netherlands France Portugal and Argentina but several countries have enacted legislation inspired by it for the interpretation of which the Convention may have significance Moreover now that it has entered into force in 1992 it is not unlikely that it will be ratified by more states Agency in Private International Law presents a detailed analysis of the Convention with references to the laws of various jurisdictions References to legal systems other than that of the Netherlands have been checked by local lawyers
