Permanent Study Group Lucica Matei, José Luis Vázquez-Burguete, 2012 Engage, Connect, Protect Angelou Ezeilo, 2019-11-12 Building environmental strength through a diversity of youth Engage Connect Protect explodes the myth that environmental issues are primarily of interest to wealthy white communities Revealing the deep and abiding interest that African American Latino and Native American communities many of whom live in degraded and polluted parts of the country have in our collective environment Engage Connect Protect is part eye opening critique of the cultural divide in environmentalism part biography of a leading social entrepreneur and part practical toolkit for engaging diverse youth It covers Why communities of color are largely unrecognized in the environmental movement How to bridge the cultural divide and activate a new generation of environmental stewards A curriculum for engaging diverse youth and young adults through culturally appropriate methods and activities Resources for connecting mainstream America to organizations working with diverse youth within environmental projects training and employment Engage Connect Protect is a wake up call for businesses activists educators and policymakers to recognize the work of grassroots activists in diverse communities and create opportunities for engaging with diverse youth as the next generation of environmental stewards while the concern about the state of our land air and water continues to grow Bank Management, 1996 Keeping the Chattahoochee Sally Sierer Bethea, 2023-07-15 Sally Sierer Bethea was one of the first women in America to become a riverkeeper a vocal defender of a specific waterway who holds polluters accountable In Keeping the Chattahoochee she tells stories that range from joyous and funny to frustrating even alarming to illustrate what it takes to save an endangered river Her tales are triggered by the regular walks she takes through a forest to the Chattahoochee over the course of a year finding solace and kinship in nature For two decades Bethea worked to restore the neglected Chattahoochee which provides drinking water and recreation to millions of people habitat for wildlife and water for industries and farms as it cuts through the heart of the Deep South Pairing natural and political history with reflective writing she draws readers into her watershed and her memories Bethea s passion for the natural world and for defending it with a strong informed voice animates this instructive memoir Offering lessons on how to fight for our fundamental right to clean water Bethea and her colleagues take on powerful corporate and government polluters They strengthen environmental policies and educate children reviving the great river from a century of misuse Urban and Periurban Forest Diversity and Ecosystem Services Francisco Escobedo, Stephen John Livesley, Justin Morgenroth, 2018-04-13 This book is a printed edition of the Special Issue Urban and Periurban Forest Diversity and Ecosystem Services that was published in Forests Watershed Discipleship Ched Myers, 2016-10-21 This collection introduces and explores watershed discipleship as a critical contextual and constructive approach to ecological theology and practice and features emerging voices from a generation that has grown up under the shadow of climate catastrophe Watershed Discipleship is a triple entendre that recognizes we are in a watershed historical moment of crisis

focuses on our intrinsically bioregional locus as followers of Jesus and urges us to become disciples of our watersheds

Bibliographic framing essays by Myers trace his journey into a bioregionalist Christian faith and practice and offer reflections on incarnational theology hermeneutics and ecclesiology The essays feature more than a dozen activists educators and practitioners under the age of forty whose work and witness attest to a growing movement of resistance and reimagination across North America This anthology overviews the bioregional paradigm and its theological and political significance for local sustainability restorative justice and spiritual renewal Contributors reread both biblical texts and churchly practices such as mission baptism and liturgy through the lens of replacement Herein is a comprehensive and engaged call for a Transition church that can help turn our history around toward environmental resiliency and social justice by passionate advocates on the front lines of watershed discipleship
