Bowled Over The Bowling Greens Of Britain Played In Britain:

Bowled Over Hugh Hornby, 2008 The British Olympics Martin Polley, 2012-07-31 History records that the Olympic Games originated in ancient Greece nearly three thousand years ago died out around 393 AD and were triumphantly reborn in 1896 in the Greek capital of Athens Rather less well known is how during the intervening centuries an assortment of British writers romantics sportsmen and visionaries helped nurture that revival Indeed as sports historian Dr Martin Polley argues in this the 12th book in the acclaimed Played in Britain series our nation's fascination with all things Olympian has played a pivotal role in shaping the Games as we know them today culminating in London becoming in 2012 the first city ever to stage a third modern Olympiad Consider for example that the first published use of the word Olympian in the English language dates from around 1590 Its author William Shakespeare And that the first games of the post classical era to adopt the formal title Olympick took place in the Cotswolds village of Chipping Campden in 1612 It was an English traveller Richard Chandler who rediscovered the lost site of Olympia in 1766 and a Shropshire doctor William Penny Brookes who in 1850 founded the Much Wenlock Olympian Games an annual community festival that inspired Pierre de Coubertin to revive the Games at an international level Other Olympic festivals surfaced in London to celebrate Queen Victoria's accession in Liverpool and in the north east town of Morpeth while the words Olympic and Olympian became steadily more ingrained in the popular imagination throughout the Victorian era Britain's Olympic heritage gained added momentum in the 20th century At White City in 1908 London built the world's first modern purpose built Olympic stadium while in 1948 London stepped in to save the Games by offering Wembley Stadium Also in the late 1940s at Stoke Mandeville hospital in Buckinghamshire the modern Paralympics were born when sporting contests were organised for injured servicemen Thus the 2012 Games represent the culmination of over four hundred years of British enthusiasm and ingenuity an attachment that has left in its wake a trail of fascinating stories characters sites buildings and artefacts Leading the reader on a marathon journey The British Olympics charts them all making this a vital and entertaining source for anyone with an interest in the Games in sport and in the wider narrative of Britain's social and cultural heritage Played in Birmingham Steve Beauchampe, Simon Inglis, 2006 Played in Birmingham is the fifth book in a groundbreaking English Heritage series celebrating Britain's rich and diverse sporting heritage Lavishly illustrated and adopting a completely new approach to the study of sporting and urban history Played in Birmingham leads readers along a trail of fascinating locations and little known buildings landscapes and waterscapes in all corners of the city and its surrounds Birmingham is a city founded upon hard work enterprise and civic pride Its stock of historic public baths includes three of the oldest operational swimming pools in Britain In 1888 a Birmingham draper was responsible for setting up the Football League the first in the world Birmingham also has a proud record at grassroots level Following on from the pioneering example set at Bournville by the Quaker brothers George and Richard Cadbury during the early 20th century Birmingham industrialists invested in a network of sports facilities for their employees that gave rise to the largest works football association ever known Birmingham was the cradle of lawn tennis in the 1860s and the setting for the world's first snooker championships in 1927 Its numerous workshops have also been responsible for supplying medals cups and trophies for generations of international competitions plus no fewer than 200 million Acme Thunderer whistles the first choice of referees around the world since 1884 For those who do not know the city or perhaps dismiss it as a mere concrete jungle Played in Birmingham also reveals a wealth of green space parks golf courses cricket grounds and bowling greens several barely more than a mile or so from the Bull Ring Perhaps even more surprising Birmingham's topography is interlaced with rivers brooks lanks and pools with Edgbaston Reservoir forming one of the great waterscapes of urban Britain a magnet for anglers and sailors alike This is a book full of delightful surprises and quirky details many of which are little known even within the Birmingham area There has never been a history of the city quite like it Played in Manchester Simon Inglis, 2004 Britain's sporting heritage is unrivalled But what of sport's architectural heritage Played in Manchester is the first of a series of titles celebrating this significant yet often overlooked aspect of our social and cultural history Played in Tyne and Wear Lynn F. Pearson, Simon Inglis, 2010 It used to be said that whenever a football UK manager needed a goal scorer all he had to do was travel to the North East of England call down a mineshaft and up would pop a centre forward But while the careers of Alan Shearer Raich Carter Bobby Robson Brian Clough and Jackie Milburn all attest to the famous description of the North East as the hotbed of football the region's miners and shipbuilders were just as likely to be formidable boxers rowers runners cricketers or pigeon racers In Played on Tyne and Wear the 16th book in English Heritage's groundbreaking Played in Britain series architectural historian Lynn Pearson guides the reader on an intimate tour of the area's sporting treasures from the site of the celebrated Blaydon Races in Newcastle to a cockfighting pit in Tynemouth and from the cantilevered heights of Sunderland's Stadium of Light to the homespun delights of Britain's only listed pigeon cove in Ryhope On Newcastle's Town Moor one of the great open spaces of urban Britain Pearson traces the path of the Toon's old racecourse and the haunts of strong armed pot share bowlers whose matches drew tens of thousands of gamblers in the 19th century while an echo from the other side of the Moor recalls the smoky clamour of the 5 000 capacity St James Hall where the likes of Seaman Tommy Watson and Jack Casey the Sunderland Assassin drew massive crowds between the wars The River Tyne itself has witnessed many an epic rowing battle not least featuring the legendary oarsman Harry Clasper whose funeral drew an estimated 100 000 to the streets in 1870 More recently the likes of Brendan Foster and Steve Cram have continued the North East's reputation for great athletes and for great events such as the Great North Run and the now annual Gateshead Grand Prix Lesser known gems from the Victorian era include the Ashbrooke sports ground in Sunderland a real tennis court at Jesmond and a handball wall in Wallsend while the region is dotted with charming bowls and tennis pavilions golf courses and cricket grounds Profusely illustrated with archive images specially commissioned contemporary photography and detailed mapping Pearson's study may not get

Geordies and Mackems to bury the past but it shows they have sporting heritage aplenty to share as neighbours
