The Rise and Size of the Fitness Industry in Europe Jeroen Scheerder,Hanna Vehmas,Kobe Helsen,2020-10-01 This book explores the rise size and shape of the European fitness industry by using harmonised data as well as in depth analyses of national surveys in fifteen European countries Following an introduction to the socio historical and conceptual aspects of fitness the collection presents the scope of fitness as a business and participatory activity Furthermore both policy and governance issues as well as community and supply angles are considered Drawing on this unique material the book will appeal to students and scholars of sport business sport economics sport management and social sport sciences but also to administrators policymakers and entrepreneurs in the international and national sport and health community

Postmortal Society Michael Hviid Jacobsen,2017-03-31 Throughout history mankind has struggled to reconcile itself with the inescapability of its own mortality This book explores the themes of immortality and survivalism in contemporary culture shedding light on the varied and ingenious ways in which humans and human societies aspire to confront and deal with death or even seek to outlive it as it were Bringing together theoretical and empirical work from internationally acclaimed scholars across a range of disciplines Postmortal Society offers studies of the strategies adopted and means available in modern society for trying to cheat death or prolong life the status of the dead in the modern Western world the effects of beliefs that address the terror of death in other areas of life the immortalisation of celebrities the veneration of the dead in virtual worlds symbolic immortality through work the implications of understanding immortality in chemical neuronal terms and the apparent paradox of our greater reverence for the dead in increasingly secular capitalist societies A fascinating collection of studies that explore humanity s attempts to deal with its own mortality in the modern age this book will appeal to sociologists anthropologists philosophers and scholars of cultural studies with interests in death and dying

Driving with Plato Robert Rowland Smith,2011-05-03 Learn to ride a bicycle with Einstein have your first kiss with Kant get your first job with Adam Smith and weather midlife with Dante Let history s greatest minds illuminate life s turning points In Breakfast with Socrates Robert Rowland Smith brought the power of philosophy down to earth by proving in a very engaging and entertaining way that human moments meet big ideas on a regular basis Now Smith offers the natural offspring of that book expanding the day in a life concept to life as a whole in Driving with Plato Start with being born For some like Sartre you get off to a bad start You didn t ask to be born and there s little point to it anyway as life is meaningless And yet for Martin Heidegger if you hadn t been born you d have no sense of your own being and that would be a tragic loss How about midlife crisis When Dante wrote The Divine Comedy he deliberately set his story of spiritual transformation at the halfway point of his life Nietzsche too in his autobiography spoke of burying his forty fifth year as he went on to yet higher forms of actualization as a self styled superman Drawing on the great philosophers as well as on literature art politics and psychology Smith creates the richest possible range of ideas for readers to contemplate all in a warm humorous voice that revels both in life s absurdities and in the pure delight of discovery Grounding abstract ideas in concrete experience Driving with Plato helps us think more deeply about the key events in our lives even as it provides a philosophical education that everyone can appreciate and enjoy
