Buying Piece Paris Ellie Nielsen:

Buying a Piece of Paris Ellie Nielsen, 2010-01-05 Buying a Piece of Paris is a charming and witty love song to the most beautiful city in the world Paris has seduced many admirers but for Ellie Nielsen it's true love So deep is her infatuation that she'll only be satisfied with a little place to call her own The object of her desire seems so simple the sort of apartment she's seen a thousand times in magazines and movies Something effortlessly charming and quirky and old and expertly decorated Something exuding character and Parisian chic Something quintessentially French Little does she realize that the French real estate scene is not quite the dreamscape she'd imagined With two weeks to find and secure an apartment and a cursory grasp of the language Ellie embarks on a mad dash through the streets of Paris negotiating the fraught world of snobby real estate agents xenophobic bankers and perplexed Parisian naysayers Thwarted at every turn in the end it only makes her more determined to succeed With her trusty French phrasebook in hand and plucked up reserves of savoir faire Ellie undertakes the adventure of a lifetime Beauty is everywhere even if like all true romances there are many obstacles to be overcome But then c'est toujours comme à Paris Written with great verve and a superb ear for language Buying a Piece of Paris is a joy to read and a pleasure to dream about

What's France got to do with it? Juliana de Nooy, 2020-07-30 While only one book length memoir recounting the sojourn of an Australian in France was published in the 1990s well over 40 have been published since 2000 overwhelmingly written by women Although we might expect a focus on travel intercultural adjustment and communication in these texts this is the case only in a minority of accounts More frequently France serves as a backdrop to a project of self renovation in which transplantation to another country is incidental hence the question What's France got to do with it The book delves into what France represents in the various narratives its role in the self transformation and the reasons for the seemingly insatiable demand among readers and publishers for these stories It asks why these memoirs have gained such traction among Australian women at the dawn of the twenty first century and what is at stake in the fascination with France

Travelling Companions Atoni Jach, 2021-09-01 Antoni Jach takes one of the oldest of storytelling forms the traveller who shares with us the tales of other travellers and makes new magic from it Travelling Companions is a joy from start to finish John Connolly author of the A Novel and the Charlie Parker series Solitary travellers and a couple encounter Nina an eloquent storyteller on their travels through Spain France and Italy She entrances them all with her tales which prompts her fellow travelling companions to share their own stories A handsome young man from Staten Island who believes that life forms exist in other galaxies vows to never work in an office again and travels by container ship to a commune in Italy A lonely postal worker from Lodz takes home and reads the most interesting love letters often becoming convinced a relationship needs his intervention before delivering them the next day A woman named Pauline calls herself Kim because her surname is Nowak Depressed about turning forty she mysteriously disappears from her own birthday party Told by people on a journey these are stories rich with unexpected wisdoms of lives in transit Travelling

Companions is charming amusing and philosophical a wholly original exploration of what it means to honour our strangest dreams and disappointments It is both a confrontation with and a sweet diversion from these the darkest of times In the tradition of Boccaccio and Chaucer Jach is an extraordinarily inventive fabulist for late capitalism seducing his reader into an ever expansive web of captivating and often hilarious stories from likely and unlikely travelling companions Marion May Campbell author of Shadow Thief and Konkretion Travelling Companions is a hybrid travelogue of Europe and the strangeness of the human spirit It reminds us that storytelling is different from fiction it catches us in a different pulse and breath as we open ourselves to even the most far fetched and ironic pleasures of the tale It leads our tourists further than mere travelling these stories transport them with folly irony humour and endless pleasure Philip Salom author of The Returns and The Fifth Season Buying a Piece of Paris Ellie Nielsen,2008-01 Paris has seduced many but for Ellie Nielsen it s true love So deep was her infatuation with the city that if she couldn t have it all to herself she simply had to buy her own little piece of it This is an account of one couple s attempt to buy their dream flat in Paris When Art Disrupts Religion Philip Salim Francis,Randall Herbert Balmer,2017 When Art Disrupts Religion lays bare the power of encounters with the arts to unsettle and overturn deeply ingrained religious beliefs and practices Grounded in the accounts of more than 80 Evangelicals who experienced such a sea change of religious identity the book bridges the gap between aesthetic theory and lived religion while exploring the interrelationship of religion and art in the modern West The Publishers Weekly ,2008
