Building a Book, Binding a Poem Meg Kennedy, Liz Abrams-Morley, 2010-01 Presented in a conversational tone and accessible format Building a Book Binding a Poem is based on the authors extensive experience conducting school residencies and teacher workshops over the past 15 years This book demystifies the tasks of writing poetry and creating books with your students The Psychological Construction of Emotion Lisa Feldman Barrett, James A.

Russell, 2014-11-27 This volume presents cutting edge theory and research on emotions as constructed events rather than fixed essential entities It provides a thorough introduction to the assumptions hypotheses and scientific methods that embody psychological constructionist approaches Leading scholars examine the neurobiological cognitive perceptual and social processes that give rise to the experiences Western cultures call sadness anger fear and so on The book explores such compelling questions as how the brain creates emotional experiences whether the ingredients of emotions also give rise to other mental states and how to define what is or is not an emotion Introductory and concluding chapters by the editors identify key themes and controversies and compare psychological construction to other theories of emotion Poetry in the Making Daniel Tyler, 2020-11-19 Poetry in the Making investigates the compositional practices of Victorian poets as made evident in the autograph manuscripts of their poems Written in an accessible and stimulating style the book offers careful readings of individual drafts paying attention to the revisions cancellations interlineations trials of rhyme and form and sometimes the large structural changes that these documents reveal The book shows how manuscript revisions offer insights into the creative priorities and decisions of major Victorian poets Wordsworth Tennyson the Brownings Clough Hopkins Christina Rossetti Swinburne and Yeats and they investigate ideas of composition in the period particularly the uneasy balance between inspiration and labour The book testifies to the care that poets exercised at the smallest levels of their craft and demonstrates that the drafts reward an equally close attention on the part of the critic Collectively the chapters develop a survey of how Victorian poets experienced and understood their own creativity setting abstract claims about inspiration and craftsmanship against their own practical experiences The book responds to and extends a renewed interest in manuscript sources at the present time that has been stimulated in part by the increased availability of digital and facsimile editions For a long time scholarly interest in nineteenth century literary manuscripts has been dominated by editorial and theoretical concerns This book testifies to the value for criticism of poetic drafts establishing the significance of revision and of manuscript studies for the field of Victorian poetry and for literary scholarship more generally Forms of List-Making:

Epistemic, Literary, and Visual Enumeration Roman Alexander Barton, Julia Böckling, Sarah Link, Anne Rügge-meier, 2022-01-18 This open access book attempts to show that an examination of the list s formal features has the potential to produce genuine insights into the production of knowledge the poetics of literature and the composition of visual art Following a conceptual introduction the twelve single authored chapters place the list in a variety of well researched contexts including ancient Roman historiography medieval painting Enlightenment periodicals nineteenth century botanical geography American Beat poetry and contemporary photobooks With its interdisciplinary approach this book is a unique contribution to an emerging field dedicated to the study of lists      Dante and the Making of a Modern Author Albert Russell Ascoli, 2008-03-13 Leading scholar Albert Russell Ascoli traces the metamorphosis of Dante Alighieri minor Florentine aristocrat political activist and exile amateur philosopher and theologian and daring experimental poet into Dante author of the Divine Comedy and perhaps the most self consciously authoritative cultural figure in the Western canon The text offers a comprehensive introduction to Dante s evolving transformative relationship to medieval ideas of authorship and authority from the early Vita Nuova through the unfinished treatises The Banquet and On Vernacular Eloquence to the works of his maturity Monarchy and the Divine Comedy Ascoli reveals how Dante anticipates modern notions of personalized creative authorship and the phenomenon of Renaissance self fashioning Unusually the book examines Dante s career as a whole offering an important point of access not only to the Dantean oeuvre but also to the history and theory of authorship in the larger Italian and European tradition      Building a Book, Binding a Poem Meg Kennedy, Liz Abrams-Morley, 2010 Written by two teaching artists Building a Book Binding a Poem presents a strong case for incorporating book arts into various areas of the curriculum The authors provide descriptive poetry lessons explicit directions for constructing books as well as theoretical underpinnings for introducing these activities in the classroom With numerous illustrations the book includes a dozen structured projects more than fifteen ways to create visual environments on paper and numerous creative writing prompts The book is directed towards teachers of middle and high school aged students and explores the reasons why making artists books can fortify literacy both for visual and verbal learners Written by two experienced artists who have conducted numerous school residencies and teacher workshops over the past 15 years Building a Book Binding a Poem demystifies the tasks of writing poetry and creating books in a conversational tone and accessible format Publisher s website      The Poetry of Charles Tomlinson Judith P. Saunders, 2003 Throughout Charles Tomlinson s fifty year career borders have served him as setting topic theme leitmotif metaphor and formal principle Encompassing discussion of more than two hundred individual poems this study offers a coherent framework for understanding the body of work created by a major late twentieth century poet The borders he explores are spatial temporal perceptual and ideological thus they comprehend a wide range of concerns from the ecological to the sociopolitical the philosophical the ethical and the aesthetic The poems focus on places literal and figurative where disparate realms converge e g sites of political and cultural displacement of theological or economic confrontation Defining what lies on either side of a given boundary Tomlinson s work invites a back and forth process of comparison and contrast hence it fosters a dynamic and multifaceted awareness A commitment to principles of juxtaposition and counterpoint influences the prosodical workings of the poetry as well manifesting itself in structural patterns in figurative usage in deployment of rhyme in line in syntax and in diction      Weaving Words and Binding Bodies Megan
