Beginning Middle And End Template For Elementary:

School Start Year 1 Catherine de la Bedoyere, Catharine Lowry, 2018-09-05 This highly practical resource is designed to be used with children who need additional help in developing communication skills in Year 1. It offers a carefully structured group intervention which can be delivered by teachers or teaching assistants and is designed to boost language and sound awareness skills. School Start Year 1 includes detailed advice on how to set up the programme and identify children who may benefit from a structured programme of 30 Language group sessions, a structured programme of 30 Sound Awareness group sessions, activities and learning objectives that link with the Primary curriculum, 56 resource templates that can be photocopied or downloaded from the website, templates to monitor each child's objectives and an end of year evaluation. Activities are supported by colourful and original illustrations to engage children's interest and are themed around topics such as animal antics, detective stories and the seaside. An additional 5 template sessions are provided which can be used to extend the programme into Year 2. The authors provide clear guidance on how to use the resources and include an FAQ section for schools, parents and Speech and Language Therapists. This latest resource is a follow-on to the hugely popular School Start and Pre School Start and has been successfully piloted in schools. This is an invaluable resource for primary school staff that encourages good collaborative practice between teachers, teaching assistants, inclusion coordinators, SENCOs, speech and language therapists and parents. The Simple 6: A Writing Rubric for Kids Kay Davidson, 2009

The Responsive Writing Teacher, Grades K-5 Melanie Meehan, Kelsey Sorum, Corwin, 2021-02-18 This book is an instructive call to action for all of us who need to be reminded of what hope enacted as classroom practice can look like. Cornelius Minor: Every classroom is shaped by the skills, languages, social and cultural identities, perspectives and passions of the children within it. When you approach writing instruction with a deep understanding of children in your classroom, everything else—assessment, planning, differentiated instruction, mentor and shared texts—begins to fall into place. And you can teach writing with inclusion, equity and agency at the forefront. Authors Melanie Meehan and Kelsey Sorum show you how to adapt curriculum to meet the needs of the whole child. Each chapter offers intentional steps for responsive instruction across four domains: academic, linguistic, cultural and social/emotional. Features include: Inspiration, classroom examples and scaffolded tips for creating individualized resources, Customizable information gathering and planning tools, classroom charts and writing samples, Space for making notes and working through ideas, Links to online content including printable templates. Just as you adapt instruction to your students, this book adapts to you. The authors designed every guide, tool and resource to be usable in its original form or customized as you see fit. This indispensable resource will make responsive instruction actionable and your students feel valued and heard as they recognize the possibility and power they have as writers.
