Editorial and authorial voices in EFL academic journal publishing Roger Nunn, John Adamson, 2012 This volume of work is intended as a natural successor to Accepting alternative voices in EFL journal articles Nunn Adamson 2009 in which we looked into the possibilities of challenging the standard evaluation criteria and review procedure for EFL journal submissions to the Asian EFL Journal Continuing this exploration into issues impacting upon academic publishing in EFL chapters 2-6 pursue the issue of authorial voice where there seems to be an increasing consensus that a first person voice has a legitimate role beyond the humanities field In chapters 7 to 9 the focus shifts to the wider perspectives of the journal reviewer or editor

as researcher exploring issues which directly shape their academic world views This is an essential step in recognizing that research is necessary to both raise awareness of journal staff about authorial voice in publishing especially those of non Anglophone scholars and also about how reviewers and editors construct their own identity how they perceive their responsibilities and how they position the journals for which they work John Adamson An Orchard in the Street Reginald Gibbons,2017-09-18 This new collection by award winning author Reginald Gibbons explores human experience and memory in ordinary settings city apartments rural roads soap operas and juvenile court as way to understand the depths of thought and feeling in our everyday encounters These narrative meditations explode with imagery looking and listening deeply into our everyday experience the extraordinary within the ordinary the impossible within the possible Reginald Gibbons is the author of numerous collections of poetry and fiction His book Creatures of a Day was a poetry finalist for the National Book Award He lives in Evanston IL where he teaches at Northwestern University Learning Differently Elizabeth Blake-Casano,2021-05-11 Too many parents wait too long to advocate for their children who learn differently because they feel incompetent or ignorant When in reality children just need their parents to do the next right thing and walk it out one decision at a time That can be scary though when you feel alone and like everyone else s child is normal Learning Differently is meant to create a community of parents that will be brave enough to say My kid is different and it is my job to fight for them until he she is old enough to fight for themselves We as parents hold the keys to whether or not these differences create victims or victors Let s create champions together
