Being And Event Bloomsbury Revelations:

Logics of Worlds Alain Badiou, 2019-01-24 Logics of Worlds is the sequel to Alain Badiou's masterpiece Being and Event. Tackling the questions that had been left open by Being and Event and answering many of his critics in the process, Badiou supplements his pioneering treatment of multiple being with a daring and complex theory of the worlds in which truths and subjects make their mark. What he calls a materialist dialectic. Drawing on his most ambitious philosophical predecessors: Leibniz, Kant, Hegel, Kierkegaard, Lacan, Deleuze, Badiou ends this important later work with an impassioned call to live for an Idea.

Being and Event Alain Badiou, 2013-12-19 Since the book's first publication in 1988, Alain Badiou's Being and Event has established itself as one of the most important and controversial works in contemporary philosophy and its author as one of the most influential thinkers of our time. Being and Event is a comprehensive statement of Badiou's philosophical project and sees him recast the European philosophical tradition from Plato onwards via a series of analyses of such key figures as Descartes, Spinoza, Leibniz, Hegel, Rousseau, and Lacan. He thus develops the basis for a history of philosophy rivalling those of Heidegger and Deleuze in its depth. Now publishing in the Bloomsbury Revelations series to mark 25 years since the book's first publication in French, Being and Event is an essential read for anyone interested in contemporary thought.

Theatre in Transformation Wolfgang Schneider, Lebogang L. Nawa, 2019-01-23 Are artists seismographs during processes of transformation? Is theatre a mirror of society? And how does it influence society offstage? To address these questions, this collection brings together analyses of cultural policy in post-apartheid South Africa and actors of the performing arts, discussing political theatre and cultural activism. Case studies grant inside views of the State Theatre in Pretoria, the Market Theatre in Johannesburg, and the Baxter Theatre in Cape Town, followed by a documentation of panel discussions on the Soweto Theatre. The texts collected here bring to the surface new faces and voices who advance the performing arts with their images and lexicons revolving around topics such as patriarchy, femicide, and xenophobia.

Unconditional Life Yoriko Otomo, 2016 Looking at how international law regulates and is itself influenced by technology and risk, this book illustrates how and why international law has been unable to properly deal with large-scale technological risk. Through delving into its nature, international law is shown itself to be a technology.

Essays in Critical, Contemporary, and Philosophical Rhetoric Raymie E. McKerrow, 2024-10-24 This text is a representative sample of my research focus in contemporary rhetoric since the mid-1970s. It highlights work that explores themes expressed in the text's title. While not an exhaustive account of the themes, the text provides easy access to theoretical issues in rhetorical studies. These include topics such as the role of culture, citizenship, how space and time interact to affect the words we use, and the impulse to use language in critiquing the expressions of others. The collection is designed to be used by faculty teaching upper-level undergraduate to doctoral-level courses in rhetoric at colleges and universities in the USA. It also will be a resource at universities across the globe. The goal is to stimulate thought and provoke critical responses to the ideas and arguments contained in the essays. Thus, this is a text

Crowds Megan Steffen, 2020-05-26 What exactly is a crowd How do crowds differ from other large gatherings of people And how do they transform emotions politics or faith In Crowds contributors draw on their experiences and expertise to reflect on their encounters with crowds Each chapter examines a particular crowd or conception of crowdedness to provide an analysis of how when where and with whom crowds form in different contexts as well as their purpose and the practical effect the experience has on both the participants and their environment The wide selection of case studies ranges from the crowds that form every year during the Hajj to New Year celebrations in China commuters on the Delhi metro public prayer
